The Daily Commercial.

It is proposed to define by law the salaries of revenue agents. We dare say this measure is to be brought forward at the suggestion of Gen. Grant, who, both in speech and act, has manifested a determination to swell, as much as is in his power, the receipts of the National Treasury. Such a law enforced would doubtless add millions to the Government revenue, which now goes into private exchequers.

A queer wedding took place near Muncie, Indiana, the other day. When the minister arrived at the house where the bridal party was assembled, he found the happy couple standing at the pump, in the yard, talking about their approaching union. He at once proposed to marry them, then and there, and declared that he would not marry them at all unless he was permitted to perform the ceremony right off. The parties were ready, but they were outside the house. The guests were also ready, but they were inside the house. But the youthful divine was inexorable, and the happy couple finally stood upon the pump platform and were there made man and wife.

Latest telegrams from the city of Mexico say Colonel Palacios had escaped from prison, reduced the troops in Culiacan, and proclaimed Placido Vega Governor of Sinaloa. He captured the mint and released all the prisoners. Governor Vega is moving to join him. The Mayor of Culiacan, who was thrown into prison, had been released through the influence of Minister Rosecrans. Generals Escobedo and Corona were at the capital. There was an earthquake shock at Oaxaca on the 22d ult. Governor Palacios, of Durango, will take the place of Senor Romero during his absence at Washington. The Mexican Congress is to meet on Thursday. A stormy session is expected. The excursions in Yucatan have strengthened the opposition to the Juarez government. An effort will probably be made to overthrow the concession to the English company for building the Mexico and Vera Cruz Railroad, and to organize a new company, with American capital, to take charge of the road. Congress will grant belligerent rights to the Cuban insurgents if they experience no great reverse.

Death of a Virginia Millionaire.

The Lynchburg (Va.) papers record the death of Mr. Samuel Miller, an old citizen, who was formerly a merchant of that city, and one of the wealthiest men in Virginia. He commenced life as a poor boy, but by industry and strict integrity amassed a very large fortune. The Lynchburg Virginian says:

"He leaves a will, but what are its provisions is not yet known. Two of his bequests have been made known, but they are simple transfers of stocks, and are outside of his will. They are, first, $100,000 for the establishment of a female orphan asylum at the city, and second, $100,000 for the endowment of a chair of agriculture at the University of Virginia. Beyond these donations nothing is known. It is believed, however, by those most familiar with his views, that Lynchburg will share largely in his benefits. What Mr. Miller's actual wealth is it is impossible to say, but it is thought that it will not fall much, if any, under three millions. He has no family, was never married, and had only some distant relations, and it is supposed that the greater proportion of his wealth will go to charities and public enterprises."

STATE NEWS.

The Mercer county Agricultural Fair will be held at Stoneboro next fall.

It is recorded that the Sons of Malta keep up their organization in Reading. The order is extinct in most of the cities and towns of the State.

The bill authorizing the city of Harrisburg to borrow $250,000 for the erection of water works, and $50,000 for other purposes, has passed both branches of the Legislature. A fresh impetus, under this loan, will be given to the growth and prosperity of the city.

The Philadelphia Post says no man can get an elective office in that city, unless he has resided for a few years in the interior of Pennsylvania. The Harrisburg State Guard informs the Post that that's the locality where good men are produced for use in the metropolis.

The "Poor Man's Party" in Brown township, Mifflin county, tried their hand, at the spring election, by running a ticket, and the thing resulted in the election of a Republican Judge of Elections (the first elected in ten years) and several other Republican candidates.

A son of Christopher Harman, Licking Creek township, Fulton county, aged twelve years, last week undertook to fell a small tree about six inches in diameter. In falling the tree fell on him, crushing him to death.

The Tyrone Herald says the schools in that borough were cut short one month, in consequence of the borough limits having been enlarged, taking in some ninety scholars, without the borough receiving the taxes assessed on the new portion, through some illegality of the town council.

The Reading Daily Times has changed hands and is now published by Messrs. Buckwalter & Rhoads as a Republican morning paper. Its typography is neat, and its reading matter fresh and interesting.

A Philadelphia correspondent describes the beer of that city as "composed of Schuylkill water, liberally infused with [illegible] sangaris, pigtail tobacco, and a slight [illegible] of hops."

THE CUBAN MOVEMENT.

A Branch Junta Formed—The Indian Appropriation Bill—Pacific Railroad Matters—The River and Harbor Appropriation Bill—Governor Ashley and His "Town Sights"—Minister Hale Requested to Resign—President's Message—The Dyer Court of Inquiry.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7, 1869.

Indian Affairs.

The Indian appropriation bill has gone to a Conference Committee, composed of Senators Fessenden, Harlan and Cole, and Representatives Dawes, Bingham and Beck. The House, this afternoon, by the decisive vote of 89 to 27, rejected all the Senate amendments based on the treaties made by the Indian Peace Commission, and agreed to Dawes's proposition of giving the President the use of two million dollars with which to keep peace among the Indians on the plains this summer. Mr. Harlan, of the Conference Committee, will, of course, oppose this, but it is believed Messrs. Fessenden and Cole will concur. The committee meets in the morning, and will probably make a report in the course of the day. The scheme of Stuart and Welsh having failed, the original Quaker proposition is now coming to the surface again. A delegation of orthodox Quakers from Philadelphia arrived here this morning, and have had interviews during the day with the President and Secretary of the Interior. Their idea is to begin on a modest scale with one superintendency and a dozen agents, and if they are successful in this effort then branch out to larger labors.

Pacific Railroad Matters

Made but little progress in Congress to-day. The pending bill for the benefit of the Union Bend came up in the Senate at one o'clock, but was by a vote of 30 to 14 set aside for the purpose of considering the omnibus appropriation bill. An effort will be made to get it up again to-morrow, but the prospects of doing anything this session are not favorable. The Railroad Committee of the House met and heard some remarks from the attorney of the Union Pacific, and the chairman then announced that the argument was closed, and the committee would meet to-morrow to finish up their work. The session is so near at an end that there is no time to complete the investigations into the affairs of these roads, and the probabilities are that the Committee will agree to ask that the inquiry be continued to next winter for final settlement.

The Cuban Movement

In Washington is beginning to assume form. A meeting was held last evening at the house of Senator Pomeroy, at which were present some of the Cuban exiles and twenty-five or thirty ladies of high social standing, when a branch of the Cuban Junta was organized, with Mrs. Senator Pomeroy as President; Mrs. Senator Harlan and Mrs. General Chipman Vice Presidents; Grace Greenwood and Mrs. Dr. Newman, wife of the Chaplain of the Senate, Secretaries, and Mrs. Col. Curtis of Boston, as Treasurer. President Grant still maintains his attitude of non-intervention, and the ladies have not yet applied to the Secretary of War for arms and ammunition.

A Beef Contractor's Case.

The Senate Committee on Public Lands were engaged to-day in investing charges against C. W. Babcock, nominated for Surveyor General of Kansas. The charges made relate to his operations as beef contractor of Gen. Blount's army. Witnesses are being examined under oath.

The River and Harbor Bill

Appropriating two million dollars to be expended by the Secretary of War was put through the House this afternoon by 91 to 49. Mr. Holman tried to get an instruction that the amount set apart for the Ohio river should be used in improving navigation at the Falls on the plan proposed by Gen. Weitzel, but was defeated by 90 to 60. Mr. Chandler tried to get the St. Clair flats appropriation put into the omnibus bill in the Senate but failed, as did Morton also in his effort to get the Louisville canal put into the same bill.

Ashley's Case.

Governor Ashley's case went over to-day. A document containing the whole of the noted proposals for real estate were laid on the desk of each Senator, to many of whom they were entirely new. The wonder seemed general that a man with such a record should be indorsed by the whole Republican delegation from Ohio, Job Stevenson and about one hundred and ten members of the House excepted, and in the next place that he should be nominated. When the case came up in executive session, the indications of a sharp debate were so strong that it was allowed to go over.

Minister Hale Asked to Resign.

The President caused a cable telegram to be sent to Minister Hale at Madrid, notifying him that his resignation will be accepted. There is reason to believe that he will speedily be removed, if he does not resign. The quarrel between the Secretary and Minister is bitter and disgraceful, but the cause of Hale's retirement lies chiefly in the fact alluded to last week in the Spanish Cortes. He has not been bringing in articles contraband of war, but has been using his diplomatic privilege in a way of trade for his own benefit and to a considerable amount. It is said that he had connection with a store, and brought in goods free of duty from England.

The President's Message

Recommending legislation in reference to Virginia and Mississippi took Congress considerably by surprise, as it was not generally known that he contemplated the preparation of such a document. The Reconstruction Committee are to meet in the morning for its consideration, and in the course of the day an effort will be made in the House to rescind the resolution for adjournment on Saturday, and a considerable number of persons think tonight that the motion can be carried. The legislation proposed by the President could well enough be disposed of in three hours, but for a general disposition to talk everything to death.

The Dyer Court of Inquiry.

Owing to the sudden and severe illness of the chief counsel for the prosecution, will probably close in the course of a week or ten days. The defense will not put in any evidence, having made out their case during the prosecution time. The President and Secretary of War are very anxious to have the investigation finished, so that the officers engaged may go about other duty. Gen. Dyer will probably be acquitted, the general judgment being that no case has been made out against him.

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1869.

THE MARY LOWELL CASE.

Dispatches from Admiral Hoff, dated Havana, March 31, says the English Consul General had received, in reply to his demand for the return of the Mary Lowell, a note stating the case was in the Spanish Admiralty Court, and as soon as the decision was made known he would be informed of it.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAY INVESTIGATION.

The House Committee on Pacific Railroad held a meeting this morning, at which seven members were present. After hearing brief arguments from Messrs. Chandler and Crittenden in behalf of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroad Companies respectively, the members had a private consultation, and agreed to propose the adoption by full committee of a resolution asking the House to authorize the continuance of the investigation and the taking testimony during the recess of Congress.

NOMINATIONS.

The following nominations were sent in today: D. Noggle, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho; Edward Y. Goldsborough, Marshal for Maryland; Benjamin Field, Attorney for Vermont; Thomas M. Browne, Attorney for the District of Louisiana; John W. Dunn, Marshal for Delaware; Anthony Higgins, Attorney for Delaware.

Collectors of Customs—James A. Magruder, Georgetown, D. C.; Chas. W. Palfrey, for the district of Salem and Beverly, Mass.; James F. Low, Surveyor of Customs, Louisville; James F. Buckner, Collector of Internal Revenue Fifth District, Ky.; J. D. Webster, Assessor First District, Ills.; A. H. Reed, Indian Agent, Green Bay, Wisconsin; E. E. Livingston, surveyor General, Nebraska; Charles W. Lowell, Register, Jackson, Mississippi; James Scott, Secretary Washington Territory; Jacob Fuller, Commissioner for the District of Columbia; D. F. Hambrick, Wm. Wheatleigh, Isaac Barr, Chas. H. Chase, Wm. H. Chase; A. R. Calhoun, to be Pension Agent at Philadelphia.

Postmasters—Joe L. Wright, Clarksville, Ark.; J. E. Bennett, Fort Smith, Ark.; Lorenzo J. Warden, Lawrence, Kan.; Jas. A. Thompson, Ft. Scott, Ka.; Mary J. Fowler, Fort Sumner, [illegible] Sweetland, Independence, Mo.; Joseph H. White, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; L. A. Barrett, Terre Haute, Ind.; Edward Russell, Davenport, Iowa; Jno. Sweetland, Columbus, Wis.; Sarah L. Prince, Doylestown, Pa.; Peter Pritchard, Lewistown, Pa.; Albert C. Bell, Pana, Ill.; Wm. Humphrey, Lewistown, Ill.; Henry Bolton Humphreys, Pa.

The President this afternoon nominated to the Senate Philip Ritz, Marshal for Washington Territory; D. W. Voelle, Postmaster at New Albany, Ind.

THE ARMY.

The following additional Paymasters of the army are mustered out of service from June 1st: Brevet Lieut. Cols. David Gibbon, Joshua H. Watts and Calvin Holmes. Captain Jas. T. Hoyt, Assistant Quartermaster, has resigned.

Brevet Maj. Gen. S. W. Crawford, Colonel Sixteenth Infantry, has been ordered to join his regiment in the Department of the South.

Regulations have been issued from the War Department monitoring the number of clerks and messengers to headquarters of military divisions and departments out of general service. Recruits will be received from the 1st of July next, so they won't exceed one hundred in the aggregate, all of whom will be rated as clerks, and allowed the extra pay and commutation prescribed for clerks. The number of hired citizens employed by the Quartermaster's Department, whether rated as clerks, teamsters, mechanics, or laborers, will be reduced as rapidly as possible, so that by the 1st of July and thereafter they will not exceed 6,000. The Quartermaster General will distribute the number to the several departments, according to the number of troops there'n, or according to the work to be done, and when any necessity arises for a special number of hired men in excess of the above number, he will submit the case for orders of the President. The commanding Generals of Military Divisions and Departments will cause thorough inspections to be made as to the number of officers drawing commutation for fuel and quarters, and reduce the number as much as possible. All officers and troops should be quartered in the regular forts and barracks of the United States whenever it be possible, and when the barracks are inadequate for all military purposes, they may submit plans and estimates for new or enlarged barracks with a view to accommodate in public buildings the army on its present standard. In like manner commanding generals of divisions and departments will cause a thorough examination into all the means of transportation, whether animals, barges, boats, &c., with a view to a reduction to the actual wants of the service, and will report thereon specially to headquarters of the army.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate in executive session confirmed L. P. K. Stafford, of Nevada, Governor of Arizona; John A. Campbell, of Ohio, Governor of Wyoming; Frank Hall, of Colorado, Secretary of said Territory; James Scott, of Ohio, Secretary of the Territory of Washington; L. A. Ullman, of Nevada, Secretary of Utah, vice E. Higgins, removed; E. M. Lee, of Connecticut, Secretary of Wyoming; Henry Walter, of Pennsylvania, Register of Land Office at Santa Fe; Wm. H. H. Beadle, of Wisconsin, Surveyor General for Dakota; E. P. Ferry, of Illinois, Surveyor General for the Territory of Washington, vice Garfield, removed; John E. Norris, of Ohio, Pension Agent at Columbus, O.; Wm. Steadman, of Ohio, Consul at St. Jago de Cuba, vice Elisha P. Wallace, recalled; O. M. Long, Consul at Panama, vice Thos. Kilby Smith, recalled; R. J. Bennett, Collector of Customs, Beaufort, S. C.

To be Collectors of Internal Revenue—Chas. O. Whitney, Third District of Alabama; Henry B. Rowelson, First Michigan; Richard B. Pullan, Second Ohio; John Nixon, Sixth Kentucky; Alex. J. Hollister, Utah; R. C. Rogers, Nineteenth Pennsylvania; Daniel B. Priest, Sixth Wisconsin.

Assessors of Internal Revenue—George M. Linn, Sixth Kentucky; Alton Easton, First Missouri; Hiram Ruggles, Fourth Maine; B. F. Wagenseller, Fourteenth Pennsylvania.

Among the most important Postmasters are E. J. Costello, Natchez, Miss., and James A. McKee, Galveston, Texas.

AMERICANS IN CUBA.

The following is the list of Americans referred to by Admiral Hoff, in his dispatches to the Navy Department, as remaining in the vicinity of Puerto Principe and Nuevitas: R. K. Bruce, Charles McCormack, Patrick M. Carvil, John Titus, Alex. Crowly, Charles Smith, John Kemple, John Dalton, George Foster, Robert Stevens, wife and family, Henry Story and family, John Cornwell, Thomas Ross, D. R. Simmons, John Donhoe, John Fulton, Mrs. Joseph Delcke near Principe; Mrs. Agremente, Stephen Blake and wife, and at Nuevitas, Robert Fulerton.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

Appropriations for Rivers and Harbors.

The Bridge Question—Indian Appropriation Bill in Conference Committee—Bill to Reconstruct Georgia, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, April 7, 1869.

SENATE.

The Chaplain prayed that the patriot arms of Cuba might be strengthened, and the tales of the sea be severed from their oppressors.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported without amendment the joint resolution for the protection of soldiers and their heirs in regard to the payment of bounties.

The bill to reorganize the judiciary system of the United States, as amended by the House, came up. Various amendments of detail were made to the bill, and it now goes back to the House.

The bill to aid in the construction of a branch of the Pacific Railroad to Portland, Oregon, was amended and passed.

At the expiration of the morning hour the resolution to protect the Government interest in the Pacific Railroad came up as unfinished business.

Mr. FESSENDEN moved to postpone all prior orders and take up the deficiency appropriation bill. Agreed to, 35 to 14.

Mr. SPRAGUE said: I promised myself to-morrow, Mr. President, that I should beg the indulgence of the Senate for the consideration of an important subject. My position has been refined; my wings are well covered; my infantry is in line of battle; my artillery has been assigned to position, but my shells, canister and grape are behind, in consequence of the unfavorable state of the roads. I shall be ready to-morrow to go to battle. Mr. Sprague then took his coat and hat and left the Chamber amid general laughter, in which he joined.

Various amendments reported from the Committee on Appropriations to the deficiency bill were agreed to.

Mr. FESSENDEN offered an amendment creating the office of Superintendent of the Interior Department, and fixing the salary. Agreed to.

Mr. MORTON offered an amendment directing the Secretary of War, with the approval of the President, to appoint a board of scientific engineers to examine and report on the proper width of span for railroad bridges across the Ohio river, and providing that until Congress shall act on said report, no bridges shall be erected over it with a span less than four hundred feet in width over the main channel.

The amendment was ruled out of order, and the bill then passed.

Messrs. Fessenden, Harlan and Cole were appointed a committee of conference on the Indian appropriation bill.

The VICE PRESIDENT submitted a message from the President, recommending that before adjourning, Congress shall provide for the submission of the Virginia Constitution to the people some time during May or June next, at an election to be held under direction of the President, and in the district, with a view to the submission of the Constitution as adopted by the people to Congress at the commencement of the next session, and the early admission of the State to representation. The message makes a similar recommendation as to Mississippi.

At 4 P. M. the Senate went into executive session.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Committee on Elections was authorized to take testimony in Louisiana during the recess, relative to the election in that State.

The Indian appropriation bill came up. Mr. DAWES, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, moved as an amendment an additional section providing that nothing contained in this act shall be construed as ratifying or approving any Indian treaty made since July 20, 1867. Agreed to.

A vote was then taken on the amendment placing two millions at the disposal of the President, to preserve peace with the Indians, and agreed to, yeas 98, nays 33. The Democrats voted in the negative. The action of the Committee of the Whole on all other amendments was concurred in.

Mr. INGERSOLL moved to suspend the rules that he might report, from the Committee on Roads and Canals, a bill for the creation of a Commission of Engineers on the erection of railroad bridges across the Ohio river, and prohibiting until further action by Congress the erection of bridges across the river of a span less than 400 feet on the main channel. The rules were not suspended, yeas 71, nays 51, not two-thirds.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to enforce the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution and laws of the United States, and to restore the State of Georgia to republican government elected under its new Constitution. After some discussion the previous question was moved by Butler, but was refused, 61 to 67. Mr. Butler then made an argument.

Mr. BECK opposed the bill, arguing that Georgia was already completely in the Union as a State.

Mr. LYNCH, chairman of the Select Committee on American Navigation interests, reported a resolution authorizing the Committee to sit during vacation at such places as advisable, for the purpose of examining witnesses and taking testimony to be reported to the House on the second Monday in July. Adopted.

Mr. WASHBURN, of Wisconsin, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $2,000,000 for the repair, extension, preservation and completion of works for the improvement of rivers and harbors, to be expended under direction of the Secretary of War.

Mr. BROOKS protested against abandoning the whole subject of internal improvement to the Secretary of War. That was not the proper way to do it.

Mr. WASHBURN agreed with Mr. Brooks in that view, but suggested that this was the only feasible mode of proceeding at this session for works of internal improvement.

Mr. HOLMAN offered an amendment providing that the sum which may be allotted to the improvement of the Ohio river shall be applied to completing the canal at the falls of the Ohio in accordance with the plans and estimates of Gen. Weitzel. Rejected, 60 to 90. The bill then passed.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs was authorized to sit during the recess for the investigation of the Paraguayan matter.

Mr. DAVIS reported from the Judiciary Committee a bill to establish a uniform system of naturalization. Ordered printed and recommitted.

The House at 4 o'clock resumed consideration of the Georgia bill. Mr. VOORHEES spoke in opposition to it.

Mr. BINGHAM also opposed the bill, and regretted that it had been reported from the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. BROOKS favored postponement.

Mr. BINGHAM moved to postpone the bill till the first Monday in December, and demanded the previous question. The previous question was not seconded.

The bill was then temporarily laid aside, and a Committee of Conference on the Indian appropriation bill appointed, consisting of Messrs. Dawes, Bingham and Beck, on the part of the House.

The message of the President, urging action in reference to Virginia and Mississippi before the adjournment of Congress, was read.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, moved to refer the message to the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. BROOKS moved to refer it to the Judiciary Committee, arguing the Reconstruction Committee had already expressed its views at variance with those expressed by the President in his message.

Mr. BUTLER said the members of the Judiciary Committee had also expressed their views on the Mississippi question, and that the Reconstruction Committee had power to report at any time, which power the Judiciary Committee had not.

Mr. BROOKS said the Judiciary Committee should have on this question leave to report at any time.

Mr. DICKEY objected.

Without disposing of it, the House at 5:30 adjourned.

Four boys, the eldest seventeen years, have been arrested in Utica, New York, for robbing freight cars on the Central Railroad. They have been in the habit, for a year or more, of concealing themselves on the trains and then breaking into cars while they were in motion and robbing them of valuable goods. It is thought that since they first commenced they have plundered trains of upwards of one hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods, a large portion of which they subsequently destroyed. They all plead guilty, and implicated a man named Wm. Ferry as the instigator of the robberies.

Yesterday morning the explosion of nitro glycerine in a blacksmith shop, in Hudson city, destroyed the building, and Nathaniel Guard was killed outright and torn to shreds. John Coal was hurled twenty-five feet, but not seriously hurt. The accident was caused by Guard's plunging a red hot poker in a can of glycerine.

Commutation of Death Sentence.

Bill Allowing Interested Parties to Testify—Private Bills Passed—Seven Per Cent. Interest Contracts—House Bills Passed—Dedication of the Gettysburg Monument—Bill for Better Assessment of Taxes in Allegheny County Still in Committee—No Hopes for Twitchell and Eaton.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Press.

HARRISBURG, PA., April 7, 1869.

SENATE

Bills Introduced.

Mr. Errett—Relative to construction of roads during the pendency of appeals or writs of certiorari; establishing a ferry over the Allegheny river at Herr's Island; supplement to act revising, amending and consolidating corporation tax laws, which provides for collection and payment.

Mr. Connell—Supplement to act fixing the number of officers of the Senate and House, providing that hereafter the number of transcribing clerks in the Senate shall be five and only one assistant messenger.

Mr. Searight—Incorporating the trustees of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, which was passed finally.

Mr. Stinson—A resolution recalling the Philadelphia cattle market bill from the House. Adopted.

Mr. Errett—A resolution recalling from the Governor the bill incorporating the Allegheny Savings Bank for amendment. Adopted.

Mr. Duncan—A resolution authorizing the printing of two thousand copies of the report of border county claims recently adjudicated. Defeated.

The Appropriation Bill.

The Senate Committee of Conference on the appropriation bill is as follows: Connell, Errett and McIntire.

Mr. Searight called up the bill relative to actions of trespass and for mesne profits, providing that the same shall not abate by reason of death of the person liable therefor, but that suit may be brought against personal representatives.

The bill incorporating the Westmoreland County Agricultural Society was defeated on the ground that the courts have jurisdiction.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Wilson called up the bill legalizing ordinances of Pittsburgh Councils. Passed.

The Death Penalty.

The Senate amendment to the bill authorizing the Governor to commute the death penalty, was adopted by the House. The following is the bill:

Be it enacted, etc., That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Commonwealth, in any case where a sentence of death has been or shall be pronounced against any person by any Court of Oyer and Terminer of this Commonwealth, to reduce such sentence to an imprisonment for life, or for any term of years, in the penitentiary of the proper district.

The general insane bill from the Senate passed.

Mr. Strang Makes Another Explanation.

Mr. Strang referred to an article in Monday's Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, criticising his objection to the consideration of Mr. Rogers's bill the other day, allowing the Philadelphia society for the prevention of cruelty to animals to erect public fountains. He pronounced the article as contemptible. His object in objecting was to reach the Registry bill, not to defeat the Society's bill.

Seven per Cent. Interest.

The bill allowing parties to contract for the payment of interest at seven per cent. passed second reading.

Allowing Parties to Testify.

The bill from the Senate allowing parties to testify in Erie county passed finally, including Crawford, Warren, Susquehanna, Lebanon, Dauphin, Potter, Lycoming, Bucks, Snyder, Franklin, Westmoreland, Somerset, Armstrong, Chester, Huntingdon, Indiana, Bedford, Beaver, Fulton, Berks and Philadelphia.

Private Senate Bills Passed.

Authorizing the Erie Canal Company to mortgage the canal and issue bonds for redeeming the present indebtedness and enlarging the canal.

Requiring license for the sale of goods by sample in Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

Authorizing the Mercer Manufacturing Company to guarantee the bonds of the Shenango and Allegheny Railroad, not exceeding $25,000 per mile.

Incorporating Sharpsville and Butler County Railroad.

House Bills Passed.

The following House bills were passed: Extending the time for payment of enrollment tax on the charter of the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Brownsville Railroad.

Authorizing the appointment of viewers of damages on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad.

The Gettysburg Monument.

The invitation to participate in the Gettysburg battle monument dedication, July 1st, when Governor Morton will deliver the oration, Bayard Taylor the original poem, and Henry Ward Beecher the prayer, was accepted.

Deputy Mayors in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Morgan called up the Senate bill authorizing the Mayor of Pittsburgh to appoint deputies, and it was passed.

The general tax bill was considered till late.

Assessment of Taxes in Allegheny.

The bill from the Senate for the better assessment of taxes in Allegheny county will never be reported from the committee and cannot pass, the general feeling of the Allegheny delegation going against it.

The Cattle Bill.

The Corporation Committee this afternoon negatived the Philadelphia cattle bill.

The Condemned.

At eight o'clock this evening it is certain that the Governor will not commute the sentences of Gerald Eaton and George Twitchell under the act passed to-day, as was hoped by parties putting the bill through. He may sign the bill, but not embrace the opportunity to relieve Eaton or Twitchell.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Message from President Grant.

He Urges the Holding of Elections in Virginia and Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The following message was received from the President by Congress at four o'clock this afternoon:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

While I am aware that the time in which Congress proposes now to remain in session is very brief, and that it is its desire as far as consistent with the public interest to avoid entering upon the general business of legislation, there is one subject which concerns so deeply the welfare of the country, that I deem it my duty to bring it before you. I have no doubt you will concur with me in the opinion that it is desirable to restore the States which were engaged in the rebellion to their relations to the Government and the country at as early a period as the people of those States shall be found willing to become peaceful and orderly communities, and to adopt and maintain such constitutions and laws as will effectually secure the civil and political rights of all persons within their borders. The authority of the United States, which has been vindicated and established by its military power, must undoubtedly be asserted for the absolute protection of all its citizens in the full enjoyment of the freedom and security which is the object of republican government; but whenever the people of a rebellious State are ready to enter in good faith upon the accomplishment of this object, in entire conformity with the constitutional authority of Congress, it is certainly desirable that all causes of irritation should be removed as promptly as possible, that a more perfect Union may be established and the country be restored to peace and prosperity.

The Convention of the people of Virginia, which met in Richmond, on Tuesday, December 3, 1867, framed a constitution for that State, which was adopted by the Convention on the 17th of April, 1868, and I desire respectfully to call the attention of Congress to the propriety of providing by law for the holding of an election in that State at some time during the months of May or June next, under direction of the military commander of the district, at which the question of the adoption of that Constitution shall be submitted to the citizens of the State; and if this should seem desirable, I would recommend that a separate vote be taken upon such parts as may be thought expedient, and that at the same time and under the same authority there shall be an election for the officers provided under such constitution, and that the constitution, or such parts thereof as shall have been adopted by the people be submitted to Congress on the first Monday of December next for its consideration, so that if the same is then approved, the necessary steps will have been taken for the restoration of Virginia to its proper relations to the Union. I am led to make this recommendation from the confident hope and belief that the people of that State are now ready to co-operate with the national government in bringing it into such relations to the Union as it ought as soon as possible to establish and maintain, and to give to all its people those equal rights under the law which are asserted in the Declaration of Independence, in the words of one of the most illustrious of its sons. I desire also to ask the consideration of Congress to the question whether there is not just ground for believing the constitution framed by the convention of the people of Mississippi for that State, and once rejected, might not be again submitted to the people of that State in like manner, and with the probability of the same result.

[Signed] U. S. GRANT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7, 1869.

Arrest of a Miscreant.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

IRONTON, O., April 7, 1869.

Marshal Morgan arrested a man named Davis here to-day, charged with committing an outrage on his niece, a child of eight years. The crime was committed last Friday, in Portsmouth, to which place he will be taken for trial. Davis is aged about thirty-five years.

A St. Paul dispatch of Tuesday says: The river is rising rapidly, and the ice is breaking up. Two of the stone piers for the New Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad bridge were partially carried away by the ice. An insane man named Grey, on the Stillwater road, killed his wife and four children last night. The murderer was arrested.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

Preparations for the Execution of Eaton and Twitchell—Condition of the Doomed Men.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—The preparations for the execution of Gerald Eaton, convicted of the murder of Timothy Heenan, and of George S. Twitchell, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mary E. Hill, have been commenced. The same scaffold will be used upon which Probst and others have suffered the death penalty. The execution will be private, only the officials and six reporters to be present. Eaton, in conversation to-day, expressed himself ready to meet his fate. He declared in a decided manner he did not fire the fatal shot, and should not have been convicted of the murder. He says he is ready to go and die like a man. He was thirty-three years of age on the 15th of March, the day on which his death warrant was read to him.

Twitchell has just taken farewell leave of his brothers and young McCully, who was his steadfast friend during the trial. The parting was very affecting and all wept bitterly. Twitchell became somewhat composed after the departure of his friends. He appears to have lost much of that firmness which characterized him during his trial, and since his conviction. Twitchell said he was as well as any man could be under the circumstances, and he had suffered all any person could in his position. Nothing was said about the murder.

HARRISBURG, April 7.—Tremendous exertions are being made for the pardon of Eaton and Twitchell, but the Governor has firmly refused to let the law take its course in Twitchell, and more than probable in Eaton's case also.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—In a conversation with one of his counsel yesterday, Twitchell talked quite freely about his recent confession and its effect on the public mind. He asserted positively that the confession was not intended for publication until after his death. It was given to the papers without his consent. He will not make another. Neither has he anything to add to the one already made. He reiterates its truth, and says that the discrepancies pointed out by the newspapers are the best proofs of its truth, as he could have easily manufactured a lie which would be consistent in every particular. He made the confession because his wife deserted him and has shown no affection for him since his arrest. On the occasion of her last visit he said to her "that there must be some light thrown on this matter." She promised to call again soon, but never returned. If immediately after her acquittal she had told the whole truth, he believes he would have been saved. He expresses himself as having no fear of what he terms a physical death, and would not exchange places with his guilty and criminal wife. He deeply deplores the disgrace brought upon his father. He said "a good life in this world sometimes avails a man nothing: he tried to live well." He hoped Eaton will be reprieved. Both men will be executed between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock to-morrow.

CUBA.

Expeditions from Our Southern Coast—Trials by Naval Court Martial—Arrival of Artillerymen—The Cuban Flag Trampled in the Dust—Affairs in Sagua la Grande.

HAVANA, April 6.—It is known here that the authorities at Washington are aware that two expeditions are preparing to leave the Mississippi. Admiral Hoff has been ordered to prevent them from effecting a landing, and also to watch the movements of the Peruvian monitors.

The Spanish war steamer, which brought in the steamer Comanditario, also brought as prisoners five persons found on board. They are now being tried by a Naval Court Martial, and if convicted, will be hanged or shot immediately.

Six hundred artillery men arrived from Cienfuegos, the volunteers welcoming them in procession on their arrival, during which the flag of free Cuba was dragged and trampled on amid much enthusiasm.

HAVANA, April 7.—The Diario says the rebels are leaving the jurisdiction of Sagua la Grande, which is becoming quiet, and that several men from Sagua, lately in the rebel ranks, have returned to the city and joined the volunteers.

HAVANA, April 7.—It is reported to-day that the burning of settlements and farms in the interior is still being carried on by the insurrectionists.

The Voz De Cuba newspaper to-day comments bitterly on the sales of property belonging to emigrant Cubans.

HAVANA, April 7.—A fleet of ten gunboats is expected from Spain, and orders have been sent to builders in the United States for the construction of thirty more. A battalion of artillerymen which lately arrived here from Cienfuegos, will probably be sent to the Vuelta Abajo regions.

Theodoro Nunez and Francisco Gonzales, two of the rebel captors of the steamer Comanditario, who were made prisoners when she was recaptured, are in irons on board of a Spanish man-of-war at Nassau, where they are kept for the purpose of identifying their companions who escaped to that Island.

A batch of twenty rebel prisoners have just arrived from Santo Espiritu.

The Governor of the town of Guanbaca is banishing young men suspected of rebel tendencies.

A revival of the late volunteer demonstrations is anticipated on the arrival of volunteers from Catalonia, Spain.

The Voz de Cuba announces that extensive retrenchments are proposed in the administration, and urges a measure of confiscation because absentees are selling their property. A project is on foot for merchants to give their country debtors an extension of three months.

RHODE ISLAND.

The State Election—The Republican Ticket Elected by 3,000 Majority.

PROVIDENCE, April 7.—The election for State officers and members of the Legislature to-day passed off very quietly, and a light vote was cast. The Republican ticket, headed by Seth Padelford for Governor, is elected by about 3,000 majority. Returns from all but nine towns give Padelford 6,858 and Pierce, Democrat, 3,669. The Senate will probably comprise twenty-seven Republicans and six Democrats; House sixty-one Republicans and eleven Democrats. Providence gave 1,642 Republican and 576 Democratic votes; Newport 427 Republican and 162 Democratic; Bristol 69 Republican and 183 Democratic; Woonsocket 218 Republican and 52 Democratic votes.

LATER.—Returns from every town in the State except Block Island give Padelford 7,167 and Pierce 3,559. The total vote is about one-half that of last fall.

Suicide of an Insane Woman.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

COLUMBIA, IND., April 7, 1869.

Mary Guise, aged thirty-five, wife of Henry Guise, a machinist living in this place, committed suicide by hanging herself about two o'clock this afternoon. She took dinner with her family as usual to-day, giving no indication of the sad event which followed so soon. After dinner, her husband having returned to his work, she sat musing for a couple of hours, when she called her hired girl and told her to take care of her children for a few minutes while she went out. She had not been gone long when a lady called at the house to see her. The girl went in search of her to the barn, where she found her on her knees with a rope round her neck, the rope being suspended from a beam about seven feet from the floor. She was still living when first discovered by the servant, who at once called for help. Some men who were near by were summoned, and went to the barn and cut the rope, using all the means within reach to restore her but without success. She had been in feeble health for some time, giving indications of being partially deranged at times.

In the New York Legislature yesterday, the House Committee reported in favor of legalizing the over issue of Central Railroad stock.

In the Cincinnati Superior Court, general term, Judges Stover, Taft and Hagans, yesterday, it was decided that the present agents of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad are within the jurisdiction of the above court. The question arose on a motion to dismiss a case wherein a passenger sued for baggage lost by the railroad.

A special from St. Paul says: Last night, eight miles from that city, in Washington county, a horrible tragedy was enacted. A man named Gray killed his wife and four children with an ax, mangling them in a shocking manner. He afterwards cut all their throats. All were found lying near each other in pools of blood, presenting a most sickening spectacle. Gray is insane. He was arrested and is now in jail at St. Paul.

Hon. Luther Dixon was re-elected Chief Justice of Wisconsin on Monday, with no organized opposition.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Armitage, of Wisconsin, indorses the proposition to open the Milwaukee Young Men's Association Library on Sunday, provided the hours shall be afternoon and evening. The question is to be submitted to a vote of the members.

Among the bills vetoed by Governor Palmer, of Illinois, was one to provide for the publication of the general laws of the State in the country papers. An examination of the journal of the House since the veto developes the fact that the bill never passed that body.

The city election in St. Paul, Minn., yesterday, resulted in the election of Maxfield, the Citizens' candidate for Mayor, by five majority over Gilman, the Democratic candidate. The same party elected their candidates for Comptroller, Assessor and Engineer.

Arthur Devine, of the firm of Devine Bros., Chicago, who shot and instantly killed Francis McVey, whom he had discharged from his employ, on Saturday last, has been admitted to bail by Judge Geary in bonds of $20,000.

Winona, Minn., voted on Monday, by a majority of 300, to give a bonus of $100,000 to aid in the construction of the St. Paul and Chicago Railroad. Several other towns on the Mississippi river have voted in the same way, say to an aggregate of three hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. St. Paul has voted another hundred thousand, making $425,000.

The convention of such of the laity and clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church as do not subscribe to the Ritualistic tendencies of the Bishop of the Chicago diocese and his coworkers, is fixed for the 17th of June in that city.

A young man named Urban Wohlrab was fatally injured Tuesday in the town of Good Hope, near Milwaukee, Wisconsin, by the bursting of a mill stone in Hermann's grist mill.

The grand jury have indicted Deputy Sheriff John Moran, of New York, for aiding the escape of George King, the bond robber.

The river at St. Paul is rising rapidly. The upper and lower levees are under water.

A frame building on State street, New Albany, Ind., owned by Mrs. M. A. Bell, was burned yesterday. Loss $2,000; insurance $2,000. A three story building adjoining was damaged to the extent of $1,200, $700 of which was insured.

Ex-President Johnson was enthusiastically received at the stations between Chattanooga and Nashville. At Murfreesboro he spoke for half an hour. He arrived at Nashville at 4:30 P. M., and was met by a crowd of 5,000 persons, who formed a procession and escorted him to his hotel, where he made a brief speech, returning thanks for the respect and honor shown to him by the people, and announcing that he was in favor of removing the political disabilities of every man disfranchised in Tennessee. He speaks at the Capitol, Nashville, to-day.

A fire in Brownsville, Tenn., Monday night, destroyed several stores. Loss, $80,000.

Thos. Jones, a conductor on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, was shot by a man named Farshalt, keeper of an eating house at Courtland, Ala., yesterday morning, and instantly killed.

The Mississippi river will, it is expected, be clear of ice to the head of Lake Pepin to-day.

The citizens' ticket was elected over the regular Republican ticket in Kansas City, Mo., Tuesday.

It is reported Judge Barnard will to-day order the commitment of Durant, Cisco and Tuttle to Ludlow street jail, if they persist in the refusal to testify in his court under Judge Blatchford's decision. This will necessarily provoke a conflict between the Federal and State courts. Another rumor is that the persons concerned in breaking open the Union Pacific Company's safe will be prosecuted for trespass.

Antonio Manere was arrested yesterday on suspicion of being the murderer of the German Jew who was found murdered on March 11th, in Spring Valley, Rockland County, New York.

Captain William B. Donaldson was arrested again yesterday in St. Louis, on the old charge of murdering Henry Anderson on the steamer Great Republic last June, and lodged in jail. An effort, it is said, will be made to procure his discharge by habeas corpus, on the ground that three terms of court have elapsed since his first arrest on this charge.

The North Carolina Legislature will adjourn next Monday.

The grand trunk freight engine Lancaster, exploded at Danville Junction, Me., yesterday. Five persons were severely injured, none fatally.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to assassinate Joseph Turner, Jr., of the Raleigh, N. C., Sentinel. About midnight a shot was fired through the window of his room as he sat at a table writing. The bullet failed of its mark, and lodged in the bed. The assassin made his escape. Great indignation is expressed at the occurrence.

F. G. Jewell, private banker of Skaneateles, N. Y., formerly of Poughkeepsie, has mysteriously disappeared. He left New York one day last week, having on his person $20,000. He proceeded as far as Hudson, where the train on which he was a passenger was stopped by the freshet in the river. No intelligence has been received of him since that time.

THE OIL REGIONS.

A Large Well on Church Run—Other Developments.

The Titusville Herald of yesterday says: The new well known as No. 3 on the McKnight farm, Church Run, produced yesterday at the rate of fully two hundred barrels per day. It is about 675 feet deep, and is through the third sand rock, which is seventy-one feet thick. It is located about one hundred feet distant from any other producing well, and on a ten acre lease owned by Messrs. A. K. Murray and M. A. Morse. It is a great deal the best well ever struck on the Run, and is now much the largest producing well in the region. The production is continuous, and from appearances it seems that it has penetrated a large pool of oil. At times yesterday, when the working apparatus was in good order, it yielded as much as ten barrels per hour. Two-thirds of the working interest in it is owned by Mr. Murray, and one-third by Mr. Morse.

The production of the wells on Charley Run, near Oil City, has decreased materially since the 1st inst.

The well owned by Mr. Al. Hoover on the McMillan farm, Scrubgrass, which was struck about two weeks ago, is now yielding forty barrels per day.

A day or two since an old well located on the McClintockville Petroleum Company's property, a short distance below the bridge at McClintockville, was started up, and immediately commenced to produce at the rate of about seventy-five barrels per day. The product has since been steadily increasing, and it is now about ninety barrels per day. The well was struck in 1865, and for a time it flowed two hundred barrels per day, but it suddenly ceased to produce in consequence of being flooded with water from another well located near by, and it was abandoned.

Lightning Rods.

We note among the removals this spring the firm of Lockhart & Co., who, finding their quarters quite too contracted for their increasing trade, have removed from Duquesne Way to the three-story brick building No. 234 Penn street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. This firm have been engaged in manufacturing Lightning Rods for many years and have supplied many of our churches, public buildings and thousands of our mansion houses and smaller dwellings. Their Copper Rods are indorsed by scientific persons as the best in use, and no doubt they are the perfection of lightning conductors. This firm supplies orders at wholesale and retail.

The Daily Commercial.

THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1869.

It is rumored that negotiations are on foot looking to closer relations between the Pennsylvania Central and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroads; and it is furthermore rumored that in case those negotiations fail the Central will, as far as possible, serve the public over "the great Pan Handle Route."

The friends of the Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway Company yesterday forwarded to Harrisburg a monster petition, praying for legislation that will enable the Company to extend its road to this city. There are some two thousand names to the petition, among them those of many of our prominent Wood and Liberty street merchants.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a bill, which only requires the Governor's signature to become a law, authorizing the Governor to commute the death sentence to imprisonment for life or for any term of years, in his discretion, in the penitentiary of the proper district. Governor Geary, it is said, will sign the bill, and then apply its provisions to the case of Gerald Eaton, convicted of murdering Timothy Heenan in Philadelphia, and of whose guilt there is serious doubt.

One of our Harrisburg contemporaries defends Mr. Strang, member of the House from Tioga, from the attacks made upon him for his late speech by the Republican press of the State, and alleges that his remarks were not intended to be general. The question, therefore, arises, were the reports of his speech in the Harrisburg papers correct, for if they were, then his allegations were general and sweeping. When Mr. Strang himself publicly disowns the reported speech, it will be time enough to defend him against the criticisms his alleged remarks have provoked.

As the President's nominations go in the Washington hotels thin out. It is estimated that at least ten thousand have departed since the first of the month. There are, nevertheless, many who remain, even after their first applications have proved unsuccessful, in hope of getting something else. Now that the gates are opened, the pressure on the President is unprecedented. Of the thousands who leave with sorry hearts, probably nineteen-twentieths are fully determined not to be caught in the business of seeking an office again. They have been taught a lesson which will never be forgotten. But their places will be filled by others, and the scramble will go on until we have a proper Civil Service Law.

Relative to the piano at the Executive Mansion, Harrisburg, the State Guard says:

In justice to Governor and Mrs. Geary, and strictly in accordance with the truth, we are constrained to state neither had any knowledge that a piano had been ordered for the Mansion, until it was placed in the parlor thereof. Mrs. Geary had rented a piano for use on public occasions, on learning which a number of members of the Legislature, at the session of 1868, directed a Philadelphia manufacturer to place a piano in the Mansion, pledging themselves to secure an appropriation for the payment. That was not done. Now the manufacturer wants his money, and hence the item in the appropriation bill, which it is unfair to attribute to any other source on the part of the Governor, as it is discourteous to hold the lady who presides in the Mansion, responsible for the purchase of the piano.

No one for an instant would suppose that the Governor had anything to do with the appropriation for the piano, for his efforts directed in the interest of retrenchment and reform, and his sense of the fitness of things, forbid that he should lend himself to such business.

The likeness between E. B. Washburne and his brother C. C. Washburn appears to be physical rather than mental. E. B. made many friends by guarding the Treasury from the assaults of the railroad and whisky rings. C. C., on the other hand, has taken up the business of advocating the claims of a railroad company which obtained a land grant thirteen years ago. The road was to have been built from the St. Croix river, in Wisconsin, to Lake Superior. The country lying upon the route contains the very best timber in the northwest. The line bisects the famous "Big Pine" region. The company have been so much engaged in cutting the timber and rafting it down to St. Louis that they really had no time to build the road in the specified time. These facts came out in time to defeat the second extension. The business of sawing up the big pines will not be interfered with, however. That will still go on as usual.

ANNEXATION.

The change in public sentiment concerning this subject during the past six years is remarkable. Formerly the theory that the extension of our territory subjected the Government to hidden dangers, was very generally accepted by the mass. Those who were in favor of acquiring new territory were pointed to the history of Greece and Rome. Rome was the strong argument. Generally speaking, its power was proportioned to the ignorance of those who permitted themselves to be guided by it. Precisely in the same positive manner we were informed that slavery was destined to overthrow the Republic. And the soberest among us were compelled to admit the probability that the prediction would be verified in due time. Instead, however, we have seen the Government which was to have been destroyed by slavery burying its greatest enemy. We have lived long enough to disprove the theory that the extension of power, and the acquisition of territory necessarily weakens and endangers the existence of the Government. The flag of the Republic to-day waves over millions of acres where, in the days when the citizens of the republic were counselled to beware of extending the territory, it waved over thousands. We have not only solved the slave question, the knottiest that puzzled the framers of the Government, and from which they shrank, preferring to leave its solution to those who would succeed them, but we have solved the question of annexation.

We do not desire to be understood as claiming to be wiser than our fathers in their day and generation. The theory adopted by the founders of the Government was doubtless timely. The young Republic could not be too circumspect in holding itself aloof from experiments, and especially such enterprises as were calculated to be viewed as interferences with the prerogatives of others.

It was natural enough, and to be expected, that the enunciation of the Monroe doctrine would fall upon the ears of those who were accustomed to follow unquestioningly in the footsteps of their fathers like the utterances of rank heresy. But once the shock was over, and men began to discuss the Monroe doctrine calmly, they admitted that progress did not end with the labors of those who framed the Constitution. Gradually the ideas advanced by President Monroe found supporters, and able advocates, who pointed out the probable results of two systems diametrically opposed to each other. It is unnecessary for us to say which of these ...ms has been pursued by the Republic. ...r we admit it or not, the policy of ...nment during the last twenty ...n in direct opposition to that ... Washington. We have ... of Spain and France, ...vith Russia, and all ...tending our pos... have survived ...rrogance of ...et cordi... The ...

the slavery question. In the settlement of that question were seen the extreme Northwestern, the Middle and the Eastern States, animated by a common interest uniting for the preservation of the Union. We have seen that the principle which bound thirteen States together is not weakened when applied to thirty-six. On the contrary, he must be a dull observer who fails to perceive wherein the power of the Union is augmented with every fresh acquisition of territory. Whether we examine the practical operations of the principles upon which the Government is based, in our dealings with the disaffected schemes among rulers, or turn our attention to the results which have attended our international dealings, we find that the spirit which underlies annexation, and which prompts the enforcement of the Monroe doctrine to the letter, instead of retarding, has advanced our interests in every instance.

OUR GREATEST TAX.

The public roads of Allegheny county, and indeed those of Western Pennsylvania, never half so good as they might and should be, are now scarcely passable. It is perhaps no exaggeration to say that our roads are not in good traveling condition six months in the year. Could we estimate the losses sustained by farmers and others having produce to sell, and the tax indirectly imposed upon the consumers, in consequence of bad roads, the aggregate would be surprising. If a tax of two or three per cent. were to be assessed for road purposes, the tax-payers of the county would be up in arms against it; and yet, if the amount indirectly chargeable to the impassable condition of the roads were added to the direct tax, the sum might equal an assessment of five per cent. It is one of the peculiarities of our nature that we will pay without grumbling, in an indirect way, the most onerous burdens, and quibble about paying the most reasonable sums levied as a direct tax. A farmer will cheerfully settle his bills for repairing broken vehicles, harness, etc., quietly pocket his losses resulting from inability to move produce to market or get his supplies from the city, submit philosophically to the depreciation in the value of his horses, and the numerous other losses entailed by bad roads, amounting in all to, say, one hundred dollars for the year; and yet if this same farmer should be guaranteed good roads at all seasons of the year, on the payment of an annual tax of fifty dollars, he would raise the cry of "outrage, robbery and ruin!" Those in the cities act in precisely the same way, opposing any taxation for the making of roads, upon the plea that they are not interested in them! The fact is, good roads help both city and country. The advantages are mutual, and the cost of making the main thoroughfares in the neighborhood of a great city might very justly be shared by the owners of city property. If a farmer, ten miles from this city, wants to sell a load of grain, he must put on but half the usual weight or double the number of horses, and even then the chances are that he will stick in the mud before he reaches the market. The time lost in slow traveling is also considerable, and helps to swell the aggregate cost. In this way the prices of grain, flour, hay, and all kinds of produce are increased to consumers, and to this extent our city residents are interested in good roads. Our merchants and manufacturers would also be benefited were the farmer at all times able to haul home a good load.

In presenting this view of the road question to farmers, we are aware that we are not communicating anything new. They have realized, by experience, the force of the suggestions, but have allowed the conviction to become rooted that there is no remedy. They know that they lose heavily every year from bad roads, but conclude that the cost of making them permanently good would be so great as to render the undertaking vain. The expenditure would be heavy, we admit, but the investment, if properly made, would pay beyond all calculation. We shall not now enter upon the subject of road making, as an art, further than to say that the American people are far behind other nations in this respect. A Boston paper, of recent date, asserts that "the heaviest tax paid by the people of Massachusetts, is that which they pay, in one form or another, for the privilege of maintaining some of the worst roads in existence." Thus it appears that even progressive New England has not been able to build and maintain roads as they should be built and maintained. The first step to be taken (and it might properly originate at the hub of American civilization, Boston), is to construct roads in the most thorough and durable manner. Millions are wasted annually in so-called improvements, which last for a single season. It would be better to make one or two good roads each year in a county, than to be scratching and patching over the whole road system. The second step is to keep the roads, when made, in the highest possible condition. A few men will keep in repair many miles of road, by having at hand, at convenient distances, materials for mending the slightest defect as soon as it becomes visible. The present plan is, to "repair" all the roads in the country, every spring and fall, at a very heavy outlay, and pay no attention whatever to them in the meantime. A more reckless and nonsensical waste of money and labor cannot readily be imagined. The proposition to permanently improve the principal thoroughfares leading out of this city, by paving or macadamizing one each year, is both practical and sensible, and we hope to see it adopted.

WANTED—A MINISTER FOR MEXICO.

The Mexican Mission, by all accounts, is the only one in the list of the appointments that nobody possessing the requisite ability seems to care about. To all intents it may be said to have "gone a-begging." Mexico is pictured as a paradise by enthusiastic travelers. It has a beautiful climate, fruitful soil, lovely women, and not a few romantic bandits boasting immense sombreros. Life is very luxurious there, we are told, but it depends too frequently upon a precarious tenure. The soil is too fruitful, if anything. For twenty odd years it has been productive of as many revolutions, ushered in with assassinations, pillage and long-winded proclamations, and quelled, temporarily, by an indiscriminate taking of blood, accompanied with still longer and more elaborate pronunciamentos, compared with which the most brilliant pyrotechnic display becomes insipid.

Now, nothing can be clearer than the fact that the state of public affairs in Mexico is becoming every day a subject of more importance to us. We must have some fixed policy concerning our intercourse with the successors and sham successors of Iturbide. The fact that the people of Mexico perceive in every movement of the United States an inclination to disturb the harmony which prevails in that country does not lessen our duties in the matter. We are becoming in a measure responsible for the good behavior of the people on this Continent, and at all events, we are bound to provide measures for the preservation of our commerce. We want an able Minister in Mexico. No third or fifth rate man should be entrusted with the task of looking after our interests in Mexico. Here is an excellent opportunity for a display of pure patriotism. The office seeks the man.

People who question the capability of the negro to provide for his own welfare when the opportunity is afforded him, will learn something from the report of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company. An abstract of the fourth annual report of the company lying on our table informs us that the total ...t of deposits reaches the refreshing sum ...29 92. These deposits represent the ...e much despised freedmen. GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

It is said that a shipwrecked Yankee was lately rescued from one of the Marquesas Islands, whose first question on being discovered was, "How did the Mexican war finally come out?" He was a soldier who left Gen. Scott's army before the campaign closed, and furnishes a very good parallel to the Man without a Country.

A publishing house of Yeddo announces the issue of the one hundred and sixth and last volume of an interesting Japanese novel. This work, which has been thirty-eight years in progress of publication, is said to depict faithfully the social life of Japan in all grades and in every quarter of the Empire.

An Indiana man went to Chicago during the early part of the winter and packed 20,000 tons of ice. During the warm weather he sold it to speculators for $17,000 more than it cost him, and went home. Since then another fine crop has ripened and the price has gone down more than one half.

Strawberries have been selling in New York for some weeks at $10 a quart, and some of our luxurious citizens, blessed with palates that relish the taste of silver, have been enjoying them, literally regardless of expense. Strawberries at $10 a quart in Broadway, and within a stone's throw of hundreds of poor people who can't get bread enough to eat at ten cents a loaf!

A portion of the anti-Ritualist party in Australia have formed what they designate a Free Church of England, and have elected a bishop. He went through a form of consecration, took the oaths and held a general ordination. The English Church Missionary Society has 15,000 communicants in Sierra Leone, and for 2,000 miles of the coast, reaching to the Gaboon river, on the equator, missionary stations have taken the place of slave-factories. In South Africa there are over 20,000 communicants.

We have from Georgia accounts of the visit there for the spring months of prominent Northern men. The list of names presents a curious collection, including among those present or expected, Secretary Seward, Senator Sprague, Thurlow Weed and others.

The Providence Press says the ex-Queen of the English Gipsies, who arrived in this country recently, is to organize the 12,000 Gipsies who have come here at different times. They will be located on lands they have purchased. The Gipsy population, it says, though poor to look at, is rich in fact, and we shall soon hear of a society more honorably celebrated than that of the Mormons, governed by their own laws, and ruled over by a real Queen.

The new Collector at Philadelphia, Mr. Henry Dillon, took possession on Monday. He was met, hat in hand, by various Johnsonites, who thus far have succeeded in accomplishing the difficult feat of carrying water on both shoulders. Some of these gentry fairly danced, like so many old dogs Tray around a master just returned from a protracted journey.

Says a New York letter: The real estate speculation, which languished a little last week, owing to the spasm in the money market, exhibited renewed activity to-day. All the auction rooms were thronged, and the bidding was brisk. Much of the property disposed of were building lots in Brooklyn, East New York and Westchester county. Prices generally were called quite up to those which were realized earlier in the season.

Charles Snowden Fairfax, a descendant of Lord Fairfax, died at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore, on Sunday, in his fortieth year. He had recently arrived from California, where he was former Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The escape, at White Plains, New York, of Morton and Thompson, the men accused of robbing the Merchants Union Express Company, excites considerable comment in the West. The robbery was committed about a year ago. The accused were brought from Canada, where they took refuge, by Pinkerton. At Seymour, Indiana, they would have made short work of the robbers; at White Plains, however, it seems some official is always on hand to help the thieves.

They have a valiant set of policemen in Chicago. The other night a large squad of the force were frightened out of their wits by the ghost of a "woman in white" without a head. A reconnoiter in force revealed the ghost in the form of a bearded woman, with the upper part of the head gone. One of the force, braver than his fellows, stationed himself at a point where he could fire upon the ghost. His weapon not being of an approved pattern, he was persuaded to return to the station house, where he procured a good revolver on the next evening. But again he hurried back to his employer, terribly frightened, and the cold beads of perspiration standing on him. He took his oath that the same figure had appeared at the window, and that when he attempted to shoot at it, the woman had spit fire at him. The ghost, which all this time had undisturbed possession of a vacant house, was finally captured. It proved to be a "contemptible," and wickedly perverse puppy weighing about six pounds.

A Washington letter says: "Wilson was offered the State Department, but doubted his ability, and said so earnestly and in good faith. To give him time to consider of it, Washburne was put in, with a clear understanding that it was an ad interim only. Washburne, it is said, could not resist the old politician's habit of dispensing patronage, and began filling the offices. Whereupon two gentlemen grew offended. One was Grant, and the other was Wilson, who positively declined the place. And thereupon Mr. Hamilton Fish intervened. This is the talk of very shrewd, well informed people, but you can take it for what it is worth." All of which should be accepted with caution.

The city election in Cleveland on Monday resulted in the election of Stephen Buhrer, Democrat, for Mayor by 2,600 majority. The Democrats also elected their candidates for City Attorney, Police Judge, Trustee of Water Works and probably Common Pleas Judge. This partial triumph of the Democracy is credited to operations of a Republican ring which named the candidates for office expecting the party to ratify their choice. The city gave Grant over 2,000 majority last Fall, and is good for 1,500 Republican majority on any national issue, but the voters were determined in the late election to teach the members of the ring a lesson, and they did.

Judge Brewster, of the Philadelphia Court of Quarter Sessions, in charging the Grand Jury a few days ago, referred to the increase of crime there as follows:

My observation of our criminal trials has satisfied me that the same evil exists here which is described to us in an able editorial of the London Times as prevailing elsewhere. "Crime is pursued by a numerous class of persons as a profession, apart from all casual temptation or impulse. The profession is maintained by a regular succession of practitioners, like an honest trade. It has its seminaries, its markets, and its places of resort."

An exchange, bursting with eagerness to reveal the fact, lets out the secret that all the severe articles that appear in the Saturday Review on women, are the productions of a woman's pen, and then asks us what we think of that for a surprise? The query evidently emanates from some simple minded body, who has failed to observe that the severest things said about women are women's utterances.

A Georgia divine has discovered the precise fruit that produced all the wickedness in this world, including, we suppose, his own wicked existence. The forbidden fruit was neither more nor less than genuine Georgia tobacco. This discovery, it is unnecessary to add, does away with the snake. All cold blooded reptiles have a holy horror of the tobacco plant. But perhaps the Georgia divine did not think of that.

Thus far we have not made rapid progress in developing the trade of Alaska. In fact, the only thing developed appears to be mutual suspicion and ill will between the natives and the military. Recent advices from Sitka inform us that the fur trade has been entirely suspended. The Indians are afraid to approach the town, and the troops were masters of the situation. There may be money in this, but it is difficult to perceive it.

On the occasion of President Juarez's birthday, we are informed that an immense number of citizens visited him and offered their congratulations. In the evening an immense concourse of people assembled around the President's house, and fifteen bands serenaded him, but this is not deemed worthy of the name of a "demonstration" in the country of proclamations, inundations and earthquakes.

The Tribune adduces Delmar as an instance where the old theory that when the brains were out the man must die, has been signally disproved. From the tenor of the Tribune's remarks we infer that it fails to find any brains in Delmar's statistics.

The Democrats in Washington were so confident of carrying Connecticut that they bet heavily. The defeat of Dixon for Congress is especially mortifying.

Severe but Just.

The New York Sun, discussing the income tax, thus describes that portion of highly respectable people who evade the law: "There is a curious theory on this subject of paying taxes to the Government current among well-to-do people, who would be shocked at any charge of personal immorality. They meet their notes punctually enough; their landlord never has to call twice for his rent; and their butcher, their baker and their grocer are satisfied with a similar promptness. When a tax even is put upon them in such a shape that they know it cannot be dodged, they draw their check for it like men. They may be seen at the Tax Receiver's office in the Park, waiting in long lines for a chance to anticipate the amount assessed by the city on their real estate, and thus save a few days' interest. * * * With our form of government, which is carried on by the people and for the people, we are all partners together; and when any one keeps back the share due from him to help defray the national expenses, he simply cheats the rest of us out of enough more than our proper quota to make up the deficiency. And it makes no difference whether this comes to pass by positive lying, or by the silent trickery of withholding one's name and address from the Assessors of Internal Revenue. We therefore charge upon the rich men of the country who either make no income returns, or make them untruthfully, the guilt of swindling their fellow-citizens. They are morally as much thieves as the pickpocket or the shoplifter."

The order recently issued by order of the President, transferring Gen. Halleck from the command of the Military Division of the Pacific, with headquarters at San Francisco, and assigning him to the command of the Military Division of the South, with headquarters at Louisville, Ky., excites a great deal of attention, as it is whispered that the expectation is entertained in high quarters that Halleck will resign sooner than go to Louisville. It is currently reported that he has said he would resign if he were ordered away from San Francisco, and some people think that the intention in issuing this order was to see whether he would be as good as his word, and resign. He is not thought to be popular with the present "powers that be," having ruled over Grant with a high hand when he was in power, and was one of the men who pronounced Sherman ...ane when the latter said it would require ...se armies to conquer the rebel...

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Wendell Phillips on the New Testament and Suffrage.

The friends of Woman Suffrage held a meeting in Boston the other day, which Mr. Phillips addressed. In the course of his speech he said:

Is there anything in religion that is an argument why woman has not the same right as man? Look across the New Testament. This has two sides. The one teaches the eternal relations between God and man, and the other glances at the political situation of the day. It lives under the Jewish and Roman polity; it does not indorse them. When the New Testament says "Honor the King," it don't mean that we must have a King, but that the civil authority is to be respected. It puts in a specific phrase a general principle. So when it alludes to the condition of the sexes under the Eastern and Oriental custom, it is nothing to us. Man had no more right to express an opinion in Judea than woman. The Government of those days was not a Government of right but of power. The man who proves by the Testaments proves too much. If the Old Testament is followed on the gallows question, every man who gathers sticks on Sunday should be hanged. If the New Testament is an authority on the true position of woman, then we must go back to the Eastern custom, and make it a crime for women to go out on the street. Why select one custom and bind ourselves to the religious question? Then we come wholly to the expediency of granting it and the method of using it.

What the English Think of Grant.

A London correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes: Portraits of General Grant are fixed in the shop windows, and the press teems with speculations on his character, his opinions, his future policy. The prevalent notion decidedly is that he entertains sentiments toward English the reverse of those so lavishly distributed by Mr. Reverdy Johnson. Literary men greatly admire his reticence and the style of the sentences which they find attributed to him, but politicians are uneasy.

A night or two ago I was in the society of some eminent men—legislators, travelers and authorities on questions of finance, when the subject of American credit came up, and an interesting conversation ensued. The majority of the company believed the United States had not only power, but the will, to pay off their debt and maintain their honor unsullied in the eyes of the world, but a few able men were equally positive the other way. Their argument was, that when the young men of the South enter upon the full enjoyment of their political privileges, they will unite with the Democratic party at the North, and by taxing the bonds, or some similar trick, force on a policy of repudiation. I urged that a new moral world had become disclosed in America; that those who rule the heart and keep active the conscience of the nation, have as keen a sense of honor as any public men in the world. The discontents smiled, and whispered "sentiment." In a few years' time, they repented, a class would be dominant in the States to whom the repudiation of the debt must give a positive satisfaction, and who will see in the strength of the country sufficient compensation for the stain on her escutcheon.

Bad Condition of English Manufacturing Interests.

The English papers show a bad state of affairs in the manufacturing districts. During two days 1,500 persons were relieved at the Blackburn office, and during the five previous days there was an average of eighty per day. Gloomy and distressing accounts of the homes of the operatives are given by those in the habit of visiting, and the prospect is in no respect reassuring. There is a tendency in favor of emigration among the operatives. In about three weeks, unless some concession is made by the operatives, nearly sixteen thousand of them will be thrown out of work, the masters having fully made up their minds to abide by their original decision. It is distinctly stated that the bulk of the masters are, and have for some time been losing money. Not six of them, it is said, are working to a profit. Manufacturing property has become a drug, and there are some mills in the town which cost upward of £40,000 sterling, which are in a good condition, but which cannot be held for anything like half that amount. All those mills making cloth, gray shirtings, etc., for the Indian market, are losing money on account of the depressed state of business in that country, and at present there is not the slightest sign of improvement.

The French Emperor's Health.

A Paris correspondent, March 22, writes: "The Emperor has been reported ill and unable to preside at two Cabinet Councils. The truth is, that his Majesty caught cold last Thursday while making observations on the relative merits of magnetism and the electric light in the court of the Tuileries. The night was bitterly cold and the Emperor stood for a quarter of an hour exposed to the east wind, as I am informed, in his evening dress, merely protected by a paletot. The cold he caught turned to influenza and sciatica. The attack, however, has been slight. But whenever he has been over-worked that most distressing form of headache invariably comes on for which the only palliative is complete darkness. To this remedy the Emperor resorts, and remains on his sofa in perfect seclusion till the suffering is mitigated. He usually falls asleep, and on awaking instantly rises and resumes the work which had been temporarily interrupted."

Gen. David Rikes, who was one of the gentlemen that went to Brazil, relates in a lecture some of the wonders of that country and the present condition of the colony. It is located at Sartaram, an old Portuguese settlement on the Amazon river, about 550 miles from the sea. The soil of the region round about is of inexhaustible fertility, producing all the cereal grains, maize, potatoes, and all the tropical and semi-tropical fruits, either spontaneously or by cultivation, in the greatest abundance. Cotton, of a quality superior to American upland, grows wild, and is cultivated with very little labor. The sugar cane yields abundantly, and after being protected from the weeds for the first two seasons after planting requires no more cultivation for fifteen or twenty years, needing only to be cut and carried to the mill. The forests produce many varieties of valuable woods, gum and nuts, besides excellent timber for ship building, house building and joiner work. The climate is delightful, the ordinary range of the thermometer being from 80° to 84°, between day and night the year round. The extremes for fifteen months were 75° and 86° Fahrenheit. The opportunities for commerce are unrivaled. Manufactures of various kinds could be carried on with very great profit, and find an ample and immediate market almost at their doors. American steamboats, manned by American crews, could earn large profits in any of the Brazilian rivers. Railroads would prove of immense value to their owners. The Brazilian government is very desirous to attract to the country American enterprise and capital, and offers every facility and protection to both.

In his charge to the Grand Jury of Philadelphia, the other day, Judge Brewster employed some very plain language. Said he:

"It has come to pass, gentlemen, that men are shot down or stoned to death upon our highways, and that the law seems as powerless for their vindication as it was for their protection. Grand Juries hesitate to find true bills, and Petit Juries of late refuse to convict except of inferior grades, frequently coupling those verdicts with recommendations to mercy, and even in an occasional case of great atrocity, when conviction is followed by a sentence of death, the executive is besieged for a pardon. It is owing to these efforts to thwart justice that it has come to pass in Philadelphia, that it is more dangerous for a man to pick a pocket than to take a life. The thief is much more certain of being punished than the murderer. This will continue until public opinion undergoes a change."

The Spanish man-of-war Blaso de Sancy bombarded the quarter of the town of Gibara occupied by the insurgents, for upwards of five hours with shell and round shot, the vessel being anchored half a mile from shore. The headquarters of the insurgent general could be plainly seen from the ship's deck; orderlies were riding in and out leisurely, but not a man was seen to run. Then the gunboat Africa did the same thing, and nobody was hurt! Ferocious fighting that, and good exercise for gunners.

Senator Nye's bill for the completion of the Washington and Lincoln monuments is a curious affair. The corporators are authorized to do anything they please, as creating monopolies, effecting insurances, starting banks, selling lottery tickets or other speculations; which are to be entirely exempt from taxation. The bribe offered for these monstrous grants of power is the promise to pay into the National Treasury $100,000 a year for twenty-one years.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 7, 1869.

We have no favorable change to report in the condition of the local money market. The demand on our banks is much greater than they can meet, and private capitalists as well as the banking firms of the city are scarce of money. As remarked by a New York journal, the change in the banking law, doing away with quarterly statements, produces a centrifugal tendency in currency, causing a more conservative policy on the part of country banks, who, as buyers of city paper and sellers of exchange on New York, were wont to contribute their balances to the metropolis. It is the history of experience, too, that the convalescence of the market is a slow one, and its recovery is not likely to be more hasty this year than it was last. The country was never in better condition for making money. The winter has been an open one and the humbler classes have been very steadily employed, in the city at least. There is no disguising the fact that business has been dull during the expired portion of the spring, and until a revival fully we need not look for plethoric bank accounts. There is a vein of conservatism and common sense running through the mass of society which has forbidden rash undertakings this year. The wild speculation succeeding the war has been followed by a period of reflection. People are well off now, and they pause before risking what they have acquired for the chances of greater wealth. Money has gradually gravitated into more hands. The poor are richer than they used to be. Money is more widely scattered. The South is a prominent illustration of this fact. A Rhode Island paper, speaking of the prospects of the spring manufacturing business and the less demand for fabrics says: "Taxes, and the increased cost of articles of food have made it necessary for the people to adopt measures of economy, and to buy little except what is absolutely needed. In these times the women wear their old clothes and women turn and make over even their calico dresses. The retailer feels the change in his small daily sales; the jobber feels it in the diminished wants of the retailer, and the wholesale agent and manufacturer feels it in his reduced sales to the jobber."

—There was a fractional advance in the government bond market to-day, which made up for the decline yesterday. Jay Cooke & Co. in their letter to Ira B. McVay & Co., remark as follows:

"In governments the market has been 'hammered' at the boards to make low buying prices, and 6's were at one time worked down upon small offerings to 118, and 62's to [illegible] cash; but from these prices they reacted quickly. No currency bonds were sold beyond [illegible], and few are offering at that.

In the offices there are no offerings of bonds, but on the contrary, a steady investment demand for small amounts. Some of the foreign houses are buyers to-day, but in a small way. Market strong at this hour."

Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. report the following quotations of government bonds in New York to-day, as furnished them by Jay Cooke & Co., their correspondents:

—The great feature in the New York stock market was the sudden advance in Fort Wayne. We remarked in this morning's paper that the stock was steadily being bought by wealthy houses, and was becoming scarce. By a private telegram this evening we are advised that it suddenly advanced from 127½ to 132. This is the highest point the stock ever reached, and there is no telling where it will stop.

The following table, made up from dispatches received at J. W. Kennedy's Stock Rooms, Apollo Building, No. 80 Fourth avenue, shows the prices of Railway stocks, Gold, etc. at the various sessions of the New York Boards during the day:

The New York World says: The stock market was strong and decidedly higher in all the leading stocks. The strongest and most active stocks were New York Central, Northwest preferred, Rock Island, Wabash, Fort Wayne and Reading. The movement in Reading was strong at the close, and the indications of an upward turn in this stock are quite marked. The Philadelphians are heavily short of Reading, and they are attempting to cover, which cannot be done without causing a material advance in the price of the stock. In Northwest preferred some heavy orders were partially filled for capitalists in Amsterdam, and stock sold at [illegible]. The increase of earnings in Wabash [illegible]. The St. Paul shares were strong and advanced, the common closing at [illegible] and preferred [illegible]. The demand is running on low-priced shares of the Western railroads, all those under 100.

—James W. Kennedy, Broker, No. 80 Fourth avenue (Apollo Building), dealer in United States Bonds, State and Municipal Securities, Railroad, Bank, Insurance and Miscellaneous Stocks. Being represented in the New York Stock Boards every day while in session, he purchases and sells on commission any stocks in the regular lists on the same terms as the New York brokers. Governments, Gold and Railway Stocks purchased for customers on the usual margin.

LIVE STOCK AT CHICAGO.

MAIL REPORT.

MONDAY EVENING, April 5th, 1869.

Beef Cattle—The receipts were unprecedentedly large for a Monday, and the market was "flat." There were over [illegible] beeves in the pens, and, with the prospect of large arrivals to-morrow, the feeling among holders was decidedly "panicky," and prices were nominally [illegible] lower than on the closing days of last week. Common and medium grades [illegible] were unsalable at any price, while for the very choicest offerings [illegible] several hundred head went east in first hands, and others will follow [illegible] improvement in the condition of the market here, which is an event not anticipated. As [illegible] generally nominal, we omit quotations.

Hogs—The receipts since Saturday aggregate about 2,000, and, with but few buyers in attendance, sales were slow and prices were unsettled and irregular—ruling much lower than at the close of last week. Good to choice hogs may be quoted at [illegible], and common to medium at [illegible]. The market closed dull and heavy.

Coal at Cincinnati.

There have been liberal receipts and the offerings are large, while there is but a moderate demand, but holders are not disposed to accept any lower rates. Prices are steady at [illegible] a bushel for Ohio river coal and [illegible] for Youghiogheny by the barge, afloat.

Memphis Market.

MEMPHIS, April 7.—Cotton dull and nominal [illegible]

Detroit Market.

DETROIT, April 7.—Wheat [illegible]

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 7, 1869.

The general markets, so far this week, have ruled dull, and is mainly accounted for by the bad roads throughout the country, many of them reported impassable to teams. There was some little improvement in trade to-day and yesterday, but prices were without material change from those reported for some time past.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale store prices unless otherwise noted:

APPLES—We quote good to choice at $4 50@6 00 ¥ bbl., with an occasional sale of very extra at higher and nominal rates.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales at 95c@$1 ¥ gallon in kegs and crocks.

BEANS—Market dull. Choice small white nominally [illegible] as to quality. Some very extra navy brands sells occasionally in a retail way at $3 75.

BUTTER—There is a good demand, with but moderate receipts, and sales of choice table butter is readily offered at [illegible] ¥ lb. Common grades are quoted at [illegible] ¥ lb.

EGGS—Receipts increasing and prices declining. Sales to-day at [illegible] ¥ doz.

BACON, LARD, &C.—The demand continues fair, but there is some tendency to shade prices. We quote Shoulders at [illegible]; rib sides [illegible]; clear sides 18c; sugar cured hams [illegible]; breakfast bacon [illegible]; sugar cured shoulders [illegible]; lard in tierces [illegible]; and in kegs [illegible] ¥ lb. Mess pork $32 [illegible] ¥ bbl.

LARD OIL—Market steady. We quote extra No. 1, winter trained, at $1 35@1 38, and No. 2 at $1 28 ¥ gal.

HOMINY—We quote at $5 75@6 00 ¥ bbl.

HONEY—Demand good with but a poor supply. We quote at [illegible] ¥ lb.

LIME—We quote Cleveland lime at $2 50 ¥ bbl, and white lime at $1 75 ¥ bbl.

MAPLE MOLASSES—Sales by the gallon jug at $1 75 each.

CRANBERRIES—Market dull, with sales reported of cultivated in boxes at $5 50@5 75 and in barrels at $18@20 ¥ barrel for common to good.

CHEESE—There is but a limited supply on the market. Goshen may be quoted at 24@25c ¥ lb.

ONIONS—We quote nominally common to choice at $4 00@5 00 ¥ barrel.

HAY—Tight pressed commands $22@25 ¥ ton, and loose pressed $27@28 ¥ ton. The receipts by country wagons are so limited, on account of bad roads, that prices are nominal.

POTATOES—Market well supplied and prices nominally for choice. Peachblows 70@75c ¥ bushel.

SEEDS—From store we quote clover seed in fair request at $10 00@10 50, and timothy seed at $3 65@3 75 as to quality, and flax seed at $2 45@2 50.

MILL FEED—The Pearl Mill prices are, ¥ hundred, for bran, $1 10; for shipstuff, $1 30; for middlings, $1 50; for screenings, $1 00, and for chop $1 50.

FLOUR—There is a continued fair demand for flour, but prices continue steady. From store we quote good spring barrels, [illegible]; choice spring barrels, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; winter wheat in barrels, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; St. Louis (retail) [illegible]. The following are the mill prices: Pearl Mill three star, green brand, in barrels, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; double extra in barrels [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; Pearl Mill family in barrels, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; spring wheat brands in barrels [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]. The Pittsburgh city mill prices are as follows: Choice white winter wheat flour, in bbls, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; choice red winter wheat flour, in bbls, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible]; choice spring wheat flour, in bbls, [illegible], and in sacks [illegible].

CORN-MEAL—Sales of kiln-dried at 90c ¥ bush, and common at 80c.

GRAIN—Market continues quiet and dull, and prices to a considerable extent nominal. We quote red winter wheat nominally [illegible]. Corn from first hands commands [illegible] cents, and from store [illegible] ¥ bushel as to quality. Oats from first hands [illegible] from store. Rye rules dull at [illegible]. Prime to choice barley may be quoted at [illegible] ¥ bush.

WHISKY—There continues a fair trade in whisky at former figures. Highwines at [illegible]. Common rectified, [illegible] and proof rectified [illegible]; half rye and half corn, [illegible]; old Monongahela, two years old, $2 25, and old Monongahela, three years old, $2 50 ¥ gallon. Very old whiskies are scarce, and sell at high and nominal prices, varying from [illegible] ¥ gallon.

Groceries.

Business shows a little improvement during the last five days, but not so much as we would expect at this season. Merchants are buying sparingly on account of the bad state of the roads and the scarcity of money. Prices have not changed much, although we reduce our quotations on refined sugar ¼ cent, as the absence of buyers east makes sugar move slowly. We look for a brisk trade in a few days.

We quote for choice articles as follows:

COFFEE—Old Government Java, in mats, [illegible]; Laguayra, [illegible]; Rio, fancy, [illegible]; choice, [illegible]; prime, [illegible]; fair, [illegible]; good, [illegible].

TEAS—Young Hyson, common to finest, [illegible]; Imperial and Gunpowder, do, [illegible]; Japan, [illegible]; Oolong, [illegible].

SYRUPS—White drips [illegible]; silver drips, [illegible]; Lovering's [illegible] for fair to good, [illegible].

MOLASSES—New Orleans, [illegible] for choice; Porto Rico, [illegible].

RAW SUGARS—New Orleans, good, [illegible]; prime, [illegible]; choice, [illegible]; Porto Rico—good, [illegible]; Cuba—good, [illegible]; prime, [illegible]; choice, [illegible]; Demerara—good, [illegible].

REFINED SUGARS—Hards, [illegible]; A, [illegible]; B, [illegible]; C, [illegible]; C Yellow, [illegible].

SUGAR HOUSE—[illegible].

RICE—Carolina, [illegible].

VINEGAR—We quote white wine vinegar, in original packages, [illegible]; cider vinegar, [illegible] gallon.

NEW YORK, April 7—P. M.

MONEY.

The money market was somewhat irregular in the morning. The demand was pressing, borrowers evidently desiring to supply themselves early, and not trust to the chance of an easier market. The rates paid for call loans were 7 ¥ cent. currency and [illegible] on governments, with 7 ¥ cent. currency and [illegible] on stocks. As the day advanced the market became easier, and call loans were done at 7 ¥ cent. gold, which was the current rate just previous to the close of bank hours. Applications for discount from merchants are heavy, but rates are almost nominal at [illegible] ¥ cent. for prime double and single names.

STERLING

Nominally steady at [illegible] for best bills; round amounts can only be sold at a concession therefrom.

GOLD

Quiet and firm all day, the two extremes being [illegible] and [illegible], the bulk of the transactions at [illegible], which was the closing rate. The rates paid for carrying were [illegible], and [illegible] cent., and for borrowing [illegible] to flat. No exports. Clearances at the gold exchange bank [illegible].

GOVERNMENTS

Are stronger and prices higher, but the market is dull, closing firm, however, with a good inquiry for all bonds, but no disposition on the part of dealers to sell. Coupons, [illegible]

STATE BONDS

Quiet but rather firm. Missouris [illegible]; new Tennessees [illegible]; North Carolinas [illegible].

THE STOCK MARKET

In the morning was a trifle off last evening's prices, except New York Central, which was strong and rose to [illegible] on report of the bill in the Legislature legalizing the [illegible] per cent. certificates. Northwestern was comparatively firm, it appearing forty-four thousand shares of preferred instead of a smaller amount are held in Germany. St. Paul, Rock Island, Pittsburgh, Pacific Mail and Western Union were otherwise in great demand. Later in the day the market became heavy for Northwestern, it being reported the [illegible] shares of preferred stock shipped to-day is for account of a local operator to London, while another statement was that none of the stock has been sold in Europe, but carried there on borrowed money. Subsequently the market was firmer, with a general upward movement, the strongest being Central, Northwestern preferred, Fort Wayne, St. Paul common and Pacific Mail. Prices closed steady.

[illegible] PRICES.

THE steamer West Wind broke her shaft on her last trip to Cincinnati.

THE Glendale, Capt. J. M. Hare, was announced to leave St. Louis for this port on Friday.

THE Kate Putnam, Captain Reed, left yesterday with a fine load, all being Nashville freight.

THE steamer Gallatin is being fitted up handsomely, preparatory to being placed in the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade.

THE Cincinnati Commercial says: The Alaska, Captain Oakes, is going to Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

THE steamer Leonidas, Captain Evans, passed Evansville en route for New Orleans, on Sunday.

ST. LOUIS.—There are sixteen steamers announced to leave for Fort Benton during the coming ten days.

THE punctual packet Kenton, Capt. W. H. Kerr, will be here on time to leave for Portsmouth on Friday at 4 P. M., so get ready.

THE Parkersburg Packet for this day is the side wheeler Bayard, Captain Moore. This boat has fine speed, superior accommodations and attentive officers.

THE side wheeler Gallatin will enter the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade on Tuesday next, Capt. A. L. Shepard in command.

THE George W. Cheek, in backing out from Memphis, tore off sixty feet of the larboard guard of the Coosa, damaging her to the amount of $500.

THE new mountaineer "Nick Wall" will positively take her departure for Fort Benton direct, this day, Captain Thomas Poe being in command.

THE new Northern Liner Minneapolis, Capt. T. B. Rhodes, has the principal portion of her cargo on board and will positively take her departure for St. Paul on Saturday.

THE packet Kenton, Captain Kerr, will be here on time and leave for Portsmouth on Friday at 4 P. M. Shippers will bear this in mind.

ST. LOUIS.—Tuesday's Democrat says: When Capt. L. Bonaldson, late of the Great Republic, left this city the other day, he went to Pittsburgh, where he intended to contract for an immense steamer for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade.

EVANSVILLE.—The Sallie V. has entered the Evansville and Mt. Vernon trade. The Cairo packets have dropped rates of passage from $2 to [illegible] each, and freight to [illegible] cents per hundred. The contest will be short but sharp.

THE steamer Maggie Hays brought here a pet bear for Captain James Rees. The Captain was disappointed, he expected an elephant. Never mind, Captain, the bear and elephant are near relations.

THE new and splendid mountain packet Nick Wall, Captain Thomas Poe, leaves for Missouri river on Thursday. This boat was built especially for the trade, and offers superior advantages to passengers and shippers.

A MEETING of the citizens of Charleston, West Virginia, was held on the 29th ult., which adopted a resolution that this meeting recommend to the merchants and business men of Wheeling and Charleston, to establish as early as possible, a weekly line of steamers to ply between these cities.

THE new and magnificent sidewheel passenger steamer Minneapolis, Capt. T. B. Rhodes, is announced to leave this port on Saturday, April 10, for St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque and St. Paul. This presents a fine opportunity for passengers going West, as this boat will positively go through without reshipping.

IT will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that the fine side-wheel steamer Robert Burns, Capt. F. Maratta, is announced for St. Louis and the Missouri river. This boat is one of the best of her class, and in charge of Capt. Maratta cannot fail to prove a success. Passengers and shippers will no doubt be pleased to learn that Capt. J. H. Dunlap has charge of the office. The Captain has hosts of friends and deserves them all.

MR. G. E. O'NEAL of the Salvor Wrecking Company of St. Louis, whose three submarines 1, 12 and 13, are now operating in this neighborhood, arrived a few days since at New Albany, and immediately dispatched the No. 12 to the Ruth, and will raise her if possible. The No. 13 is at present wrecking the Peoria City, it being found impossible to raise her. The No. 1 has gone from the Peoria City, and is now wrecking the Agnes.

CAIRO, April 5.—Louisiana, for Pittsburgh, well laden; Silver Moon has 283 bales cotton; Pink Varble, Cairo to Nashville; Lumsden, from Nashville, brought 63 hhds tobacco, 25 bbls flour for the South; White, from Paducah, brought 200 hoop poles for city. Ullgore?, New Orleans to Evansville, and is on charter; Vicksburg and Atlantic, St. Louis to Vicksburg; Mollie Able, New Orleans to St. Louis; Republic, St. Louis to New Orleans, passed. River rose three inches. Cloudy. Business fair.

THE Clinton (Iowa) Eagle says: The improvement of the Upper Rapids are far enough advanced to warrant the opinion that boats will be allowed to pass over as soon as navigation shall be resumed. Last year the people of Iowa, above Davenport, received little or no benefit from the Mississippi river on account of the reshipment of freight at Port Byron. The immense force at work on these Rapids has succeeded in removing the most exposed obstructions, so that in an ordinary stage of water boats will find no impediments.

In view of the excessive rates charged for freight from Chicago, and in view of the further fact that groceries and the heavier manufactures can be procured at St. Louis at lower rates than Chicago, there will doubtless be a great many merchants of Iowa, who, this spring, will take a look down South. The river towns are particularly well fixed to take advantage of this state of affairs.

THE following is a corrected list of boats that will be engaged in the Missouri river trade to Omaha and Fort Benton: "O" Line—H. S. Turner, Stonewall, Mary McDonald, Kate Kinney, Cornelia, W. J. Lewis, Glasgow, Columbian, T. L. McGill, Star Line—Post Boy, Clara, Jenny Lewis, Walter B. Dance, Marcella. N. W. Transportation Company—Bertha, North Alabama, Fanny Barker, Tennessee, Huntsville. Independent Mountain Fleet—Antelope, Emelie LaBarge, Colorado, War Eagle, Mountaineer, Nile, Cora, Henry M. Shreve, Viola Belle, St. Luke, St. Joseph, Evening Star, Silver Bow, Sterntwheel—Admiral Farragut, Tempest, Utah, Fort, Peter Balen, Cotonia?, Arkansas, Mollie Ebert, Henry Adkins, Ida, Fenwick, Idah Stockdale, Importer, Columbia, Silver Lake No. 4, Big Horn, Minnie, Andrew Ackley, Sully, Only Chance, Last Chance, Urilda, Lacon, Tom Stevens. Fur Companies—Miner, Benton, Ida Rees, all of which are first-class in every respect. A greater portion, in fact nearly all the boats named above, have been built with a special view to the navigation of the Missouri River.

In the above list the steamer Silver Lake No. 4 is omitted; also Capt. Thos. Poe's new packet Nick Wall.

NEW ORLEANS.—To our friend Mr. P. M. Boyo we are indebted for the following characteristic display of the names of many boats, some of which have long passed away, while others are still in existence; but says our friend: "The Misses Dora, Lulu and Cornelia left New Orleans on the steamer T. D. Hine; arrived at Idaho next day; stopped at Rose Franks, where they met Miss Ida; from there they went to Cheyenne, to see Lotawanna and also Tahlequah, the Indian brave, whose tribes are in this Great Republic; from thence they went to Richmond and boarded at the National, where they had a good view of the Evening Star; hearing that Mollie Stephens and Miss [illegible] were dead, to take the Right Way about it, bought a Grey Eagle to console their friends in Dixie, where they had a sight of the great Robert E. Lee; Miss Lizzie Hopkins kindly extended them a Welcome, and meeting Count Bismarck, Bart Able, and Thompson Dean, Esq., to have a little Frolic, they all started on a trip to Cuba, taking Miss Mollie Fellows's friend, W. R. Carter, the Leviathan, for protection; returning from Cuba, they passed through Virginia, where they also had a sight of the celebrated Stonewall, who was stopping at the Pioneer (Hotel), Richmond. Hearing of the great Lunar Eclipse they started to Natchez, Mississippi, to get a good view of it, intending to extend their trip to the Landmark, in Vicksburg, to celebrate the marriage of Mellie Moore to W. R. Arthur, at the church of St. Mary, but when the bride got there she already Flicker-ed. Any One that was in the Fashion could get a Big Horn from the Hon. Gov. Allen. Having had a nice time, as that was their Last Chance, they came in company with Joe Handy on board the Peytona to the Crescent City. Being not afraid that every One had a pleasant trip, they stopped at the St. Charles, and paid their bill in Legal Tenders, and so kindly compensated Robert Burns, the Wild Wagoner, for checking their baggage." One of the above named, viz: the Bart Able arrived last night with 950 bales of cotton and full of people.—Times, 5d.

CITY MATTERS.

PITTSBURGH REFORMED PRESBYTERY.

Proposal for Fraternal Conference with Seceders—Delegates to General Assembly.

The Pittsburgh Reformed Presbytery commenced its regular semi-annual sessions in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church yesterday morning, at eleven o'clock. Rev. Robert Stevenson was elected Moderator and Rev. John Alford Clerk.

Rev. W. H. Reed, of the Northern Presbytery, was, on motion, invited to take a seat on the floor of Presbytery as a consultative member.

The pastoral letter which was sent down to the churches under the care of Presbytery, by the committee appointed at the last meeting for that purpose, was read and approved.

Petitions for preaching were received from the different vacancies, and referred to the committee on supplies.

At the afternoon session Rev. Thomas Johnston made his appearance, and stated that he had been deputed by the members who had suspended their relations to the Synod last summer, to invite the Presbytery to a fraternal conference at four o'clock, in Allegheny.

After a discussion of the proposed Conference the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That this Presbytery reciprocates very cordially the fraternal spirit breathed by Mr. Johnson in his address, and assures those brethren who seceded from Presbytery on the 5th of June, 1868, by suspending relations to General Synod, that, as soon as they shall rescind their obnoxious action aforesaid, and yield submission to the will and author of the supreme Judicatory of the Church, the doors of this Presbytery will be thrown wide open for their return, and they will be welcomed most heartily to seats on the floor.

The following delegates were appointed to attend General Synod on the 18th of May next: Ministers, Revs. Dr. Douglas and John Alford; General alternate, Rev. Robert Stevenson. Elders, Messrs. R. C. Miller and M. Imbrie; General alternates, Messrs. Jas. Dickson and Jno. Black.

After making arrangements to supply the vacancies and appointing the next place of meeting, Presbytery adjourned to meet in Beulah on the first Wednesday of October next, at eleven o'clock A. M.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

The first case taken up yesterday was that of James Brown, indicted for assault and battery, Charles H. Johnson, prosecutor. The parties were colored, and the offense was alleged to have been committed at a ball several weeks ago. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, the costs to be divided between the parties.

Wm. Hingh was placed on trial on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, on complaint of Patrick Aligot. The defendant, it seems, had a bridle belonging to Aligot, which he endeavored to take from him, when Hingh knocked him down. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery, and the Court sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $15 and costs.

Christian Miller was tried and convicted on two indictments charging him with selling liquor on Sunday, founded on oath of D. Alley. Sentence deferred.

Julius Dougherty plead nolo contendere to a charge of malicious mischief preferred by Christian Miller, defendant in the above case, and was tried on an indictment for assault on oath of the same party. The jury acquitted and ordered Miller to pay the costs.

Frederick Miller plead guilty to an indictment charging him with assault and battery upon the person of his wife, and was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

William McCloskey also plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery and was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs.

Johnston Poland was put on trial for perjury, Michael Neeland prosecutor. The perjury was alleged to have been committed in a suit for perjury before Alderman Bailee, who imposed a fine of fifty dollars upon him. It was alleged that in this case the defendant swore falsely. On trial at adjournment.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

The case of Wm. McKee vs. the Fort Pitt Lumber Company and Edward Dithridge, garnishees of Gillespie & Mitchell, which has been on trial in this Court for several days, was argued to the jury yesterday by Thomas Ewing, Esq., for plaintiffs, and D. W. Bell for garnishees. The jury found the following verdict: That they find for the plaintiff as to the Fort Pitt Lumber Company, and they also find that the Fort Pitt Lumber Company has in its hands as garnishee liable to attachment and attested in this case the sum of $542 80, and as to Edward Dithridge they find for the defendant.

The next case taken up was that of S. Hastings & Co. vs. H. Lacock et ux. Action on a mechanic's lien. On trial.

A rule was granted to show cause why a new trial should not be granted in the case of Powell F. Clayton vs. W. & W. F. Seibert.

TRIAL LIST.

The following is the District Court trial list for to-day:

No. 24. Kingan vs. Arbuthnot.
No. 34. Mercer vs. Barclay.
No. 38. Gillespie for use vs. Stewart & Miller.
No. 39. Same vs. Same.
No. 40. Smith vs. Duncan & Lamb.
No. 42. Peters & Rutherford vs. Bannetin & Co.
No. 48. Young vs. Schlipper.
No. 53. Patterson vs. Smith & McGregor.

Court of Common Pleas—Judge Sterrett.

Court met at ten o'clock yesterday morning and there being no cases ready for trial, adjourned.

TRIAL LIST.

Following is the Common Pleas trial list for to-day:

No. 83. Aiken vs. Clark et ux.
75. Mercer & Robinson vs. Lucas.
76. Boardman vs. Morton.
77. Ault vs. Tragesser.
78. Osborn et al vs. Jackson.
79. Abel vs. Risher et ux.
80. Eberle vs. Hope.
81. Jacobs vs. Heward.
82. Herbler vs. McCarren.
83. Bell & Weir vs. Shoemaker & Co.
85. Haglett vs. Porter.
86. Hazelton, Jr. vs. Laverty.
91. Volz vs. Hahn.

Served Them Right.

For some time past considerable complaint has been made by the warden of the county jail in reference to the daily practice of crowds of fellows who congregate at the window on the second story of the Court House building, over the Common Pleas Court room, and converse with the female prisoners incarcerated in the cells. The most profane and obscene language is used, and not only have those doing business about the Court House been annoyed, but ladies passing along the street have been struck with amazement at the language addressed by the fellows to the women prisoners. Mayor Brush instructed his officers to arrest any and all persons indulging in such obscenity, but the officers were unable to catch them at it. Yesterday, however, they were directed to the window in question by Mr. Smith, deputy warden of the jail, and luckily chanced to pick up three young men who were in the act of conversation with the women. Their names are Samuel Jackson, Ferdinand Zacharias and Smith Elkins. They were taken before Mayor Brush, and in default of fines of five and ten dollars were committed to jail—the first two for ten days and the latter for twenty days.

A Triple Wedding.

A wedding of an unusually novel and interesting character took place in the Thirty-eighth street M. E. Church, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. Three sisters, daughters of Mr. John Blakeley, Esq., of No. 3,159 Hamilton street, Philadelphia, were joined in marriage at the same time and place, the names of the parties being as follows:

Mr. David M. Watt, of this city, to Miss Hannah A. Blakely.

Mr. E. O. Van Houten, of Philadelphia, to Miss M. Allie Blakeley.

Mr. Jesse Supplee to Miss Rebecca J. Blakeley.

As Mr. Watt is one of our most popular railroad officials, being chief clerk to Mr. Pitcairn, Esq., Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, many of his friends have availed themselves of the invitation to be present and witness the ceremony.

The party left Philadelphia immediately after their marriage on an extended wedding tour to the east, and will return home by way of Niagara Falls. They will be absent about two weeks.

General Thomas A. Rowley.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

The soldiers—who, in perhaps the darkest hour of the nation's history, repelled back the desperate hosts who had penetrated far beyond the borders of the Keystone State; who, when the capital of the State was almost within the grasp of the invading forces, and even Philadelphia, the second city on the continent, was in danger of being subject to those horrible scenes which accompany war in its direst forms—deeming that General Thomas A. Rowley, known and appreciated by them, has been unjustly dealt with by the appointing power in Washington, are determined to place him before the public for State Senate, and devote the same energies to secure his success as secured the nation's safety and perpetuity upon many a field of carnage. A VETERAN.

More Than One Claimant.

The Wheeling Register, in noticing an item which appeared in our paper some days ago in reference to a statement made by James Tartz, a prisoner in the county jail, viz: that he would reveal the hiding place of something like $3,000 worth of stolen silks, provided he was set free, says: "Our readers will recollect that nearly $3,000 worth of silks were stolen from the dry goods store of Messrs. J. S. Rhodes & Co., of this city, some months ago, and we would not be surprised to learn that the silks in question are those lost by the firm named. At all events Messrs. Rhodes & Co. intend making every effort to ascertain the facts in the case." The robbery we referred to occurred in Erie, Pa., on the 19th of March, last, and it may be that some of the silks stolen from both establishments are included in the lot which Tartz refers to.

TAKEN TO THE HOUSE OF REFUGE.—A boy named John Ford, aged thirteen years, was committed to the House of Refuge by Mayor Brush, yesterday, for incorrigibility. Ford has no parents and for some time past has been living with Mr. James Henderson, at Deer Creek. Yesterday he stole a pocket book containing ten dollars, belonging to Mr. Henderson's daughter, and came to Allegheny City, where he called at Paul's grocery store and requested a loan of five dollars for Mr. Henderson. Mr. Paul, disbelieving the boy's statement, sent for Mr. Henderson, when the truth of the matter was discovered. Officer Moon arrested Ford and after remaining in the lockup for a while, he was taken to the House of Refuge.

ARRESTED AT WHEELING.—George Thompson, whom our readers will recollect was arrested by officer Moon in the Opera House in this city some months ago, on suspicion of being a "professional" thief, and who was discharged on promising to leave the city, has come to grief in Wheeling, West Virginia. While plying the vocation of a pickpocket in that city he was detected and arrested, and after trial, sentenced to six months imprisonment in the Wheeling jail.

BIBLE BOARD MEETING.—A special meeting of the Board of Managers of the Allegheny Bible Society, will be held this evening, at seven and a half o'clock, in the Rev. C. A. Dickey's Church, corner of Beaver street and Montgomery avenue, at which punctual attendance of members is desired.

DISCHARGED.—John Nicholson was before Mayor Brush yesterday on a charge of larceny preferred by Robert Miller, and there being no evidence against him he was discharged. The case was published yesterday.

STREET CLEANING.—The Street Commissioners, taking advantage of the pleasant weather, are having the streets in their respective districts overhauled, and those having undergone the operation looked exceedingly well.

VAGRANTS.—Twelve vagrants were committed to jail by Mayor Drum, of Allegheny City, yesterday.

THE AFRICAN M. E. CONFERENCE.

Twenty Churches Represented—The Report of the Committee on Education, Etc., Etc.

The African M. E. Conference, which convened in the Wylie Street Church on Saturday, has been one of the most interesting religious meetings of the colored people lately held in this city. Twenty churches were represented.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The Conference met on Saturday morning last. The session was devoted to organization and the appointment of committees.

Bishop D. A. Payne presided, and Rev. D. E. Asbury was elected Secretary. After the various standing committees had been appointed the Conference adjourned until Monday morning.

MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The session was opened with prayer by Rev. S. Jones.

The following committee was appointed on Circuits and Stations: Rev. W. H. Hunter, Rev. J. H. Divine and Rev. G. T. Jones.

On motion Elder Wm. G. Ralph and John W. Asbury were appointed a committee to investigate the conduct of Rev. D. Cooper, formerly a member of the Ohio Conference.

The report on financial statistics was then presented and adopted. It appeared from the report that several thousand dollars had been collected during the past year for missionary and other purposes connected with the churches.

In the afternoon, Conference met at 2½ o'clock. The following questions were taken up and discussed: 1. "Which is the best method of raising the $1 collection?" 2. "Ought a minister to receive an appointment who fails to raise the connectional collection?"

Adjourned with singing and benediction by Elder Woodson.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Conference met at ten o'clock, the Bishop in the chair.

The session was devoted principally to the transaction of business connected with the Conference, which was not of much public interest.

W. H. Asbury and W. H. Brown were elected to elder's orders.

On motion, the various Union Sabbath Schools in this vicinity were invited to be present on Friday afternoon, to be addressed by a member of the Conference.

The afternoon session was devoted principally to the discussion of disciplinary questions. The most important resolution adopted was as follows:

Resolved, That we will not admit any brother into the itinerant work of the Pittsburgh Conference who will not desist from the use of tobacco.

Adjourned with singing and benediction.

WEDNESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The principal feature of the morning session was an address by Prof. J. Mercer Langston on the duties of the ministry relative to the use of tobacco. The speaker claimed that it was the duty of the ministers under all circumstances, to discontinue its use.

In the afternoon conference met at half-past two o'clock.

The hour of three o'clock on Thursday was fixed for the ordination of the newly elected elders.

Rev. B. T. Tanna presented the following report on education, Book Concern and Mission, which was adopted:

Your Committee, to whom was given the work of reporting upon the above interests of the church and people, beg leave to say: In regard to education we can state with pleasure that it is becoming general among the people. We doubt whether the same rapid advancement was ever made by any people. Among the laity of our church the time promises not to be very distant when the number of those who will be able to read God's Word will be large indeed. Among the ministry, while some progress has been made, we fear that as a whole we are not awakened to the great necessity of ministerial culture. We must have our educated ministry; Wilberforce must be sustained more zealously in the future than in the past. The reproach of its ashes must be wiped away. For long live they a mournful indication of our poverty and our low appreciation of the course of education. Let its walls go up; let its faculty be increased and supported, and let the number of pupils be quadrupled. Each of our large stations ought to a young licentiate at this college of the Church. The Book concern still languishes beneath the burden of a great debt, while yet the receipts are not equal to the expenditures; to carry on the concern fully $18,000 a year are required; to raise this large amount the concern has only the surplus on the cost of hymn books and disciplines, and the subscription of the Recorder. From these sources probably one-half of the amount may be raised. Upon the church is devolved the responsibility of raising the other half. Ought not the church to do this? Expediency, however, and necessity alike demand that this branch of the church shall be upheld. The cause of missions has never been so demanding as now. Voices call at home; voices call from abroad; over the mountains and over the sea comes the Macedonian cry: "Come and help us." From communications received from the Corresponding Secretary of the Society, we learn that the Treasury of the Society is well nigh depleted. Shall it not be filled—filled from our own pockets, and not from the pockets of charitable strangers? Long have we trusted to the strength of others—too long have we profited by the Christianity of others. Let our church be free. Let it make manifest its own love for Christ.

To meet all these wants, our late General Conference made ample provision, and your committee would only recommend the faithful execution of the same.

Bishop Payne made a lengthy address setting forth the claims of the Wilberforce University. He said the moment it was known that that University was a failure, that time would be the date of the disintegration of the African M. E. Church, and he hoped they would be spared this.

Rev. Mr. Hunter said the people were able and willing to contribute to the support of the University and he had no doubt the members of the Pittsburgh Conference would do their share of the work.

Mr. Hunter then presented the report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools which was adopted.

Adjourned with singing and benediction.

Bingham's Steamship Agency.

One of the most active, enterprising and energetic young business men of this city is William Bingham, Jr., who a few years ago took hold of the agency of the famous Inman and Anchor lines of ocean steamers, and established a branch of business in Pittsburgh of no secondary importance. In former times the custom was to send to New York for information touching passage to Europe, but thanks to Mr. Bingham a readier and cheaper way of learning all that is necessary has been established at home. Any one desiring to take the steamer for any of the European ports can procure his ticket and select his berth in the office of Mr. Bingham, and thus avoid much confusion and useless expense in New York. And this brings to recollection what is not generally known, namely, that Mr. Bingham, finding his late quarters on Fifth avenue rather circumscribed for his constantly increasing business, has removed to 143 Smithfield street, near Sixth avenue, where he has fitted up in attractive style an office on the first floor. This removal to more commodious quarters will be of great convenience to the patrons of the agency, and will greatly facilitate the transaction of business, which is not confined merely to the selling of tickets for passengers, but to the issue of letters of credit and circular notes on over one hundred cities and towns in Great Britain, France, Prussia, Russia, the German States, and other countries. Mr. Bingham also forwards packages, freight, coin and valuables to all parts of Europe, and transacts all such business as a reliable ship agency is expected to do. His promptness and integrity are so well known in this, his native city, that he requires no special recommendation from us, and we only suggest to those having business which requires the attention of a ship agent, that they should call at 143 Smithfield street, and they will be promptly attended to.

Hams, Bacon, Etc.

Provision dealers, and the public in general, are referred to the card of Messrs. F. Sellers & Co., the well known pork packers, whose warehouse is located at the corner of Penn and Wayne (Tenth) streets. These gentlemen have now on hand a large stock of prime hams, choice breakfast bacon, beef tongues, etc., which they offer at the most reasonable rates. Their sugar cured hams are of the most superior quality, put up expressly by themselves for family use. Their breakfast bacon has commanded a large sale wherever introduced, and is justly esteemed for its fine flavor and superior quality. They have also a good supply of dried beef tongue, and other articles in their line, which they sell in quantities to suit purchasers, and at the lowest market rates. As dealers, they thoroughly understand their business, and are perfectly familiar with the requirements of the Pittsburgh trade. We commend the firm to the patronage of our readers, knowing that all orders entrusted to them will be satisfactorily filled.

A Handsome Establishment.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company have converted the warehouse No. 12 Wood street into one of the most attractive offices and salesrooms in this city, and have removed from Fifth avenue thereto. The popularity of the Grover & Baker elastic and lock-stitch machine is so great in this community that more comprehensive quarters were required to transact business, and the Company have now an ample salesroom, which is fitted up and furnished in the most elegant manner. Nothing that refined taste could suggest in making the storeroom attractive and pleasant is overlooked in its arrangement, and the ample stock of bright and valuable machines is handsomely displayed. Much of the credit for the enterprise and liberality of the company in fitting up such a handsome store is due to Mr. W. P. Weyburn, the agent for Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania. His excellent judgment is apparent in many ways, and the lady patrons and others who have business at the store will find him just as attentive and as affable as when located at the old office. In this connection we may remark that Mr. Weyburn has just received a new and large assortment of machines, particular attention being asked to Nos. 1 and 9, which are a great improvement on other lock stitch machines.

CAPT. DONALDSON RELEASED ON BAIL.—We have already announced the re-arrest of Capt. Wm. B. Donaldson, of the steamer Great Republic. He was taken into custody at the Spencer House, Cincinnati, on a dispatch from the authorities of St. Louis, who ordered his return to that city, to answer the charge of murder, the facts of which are so well known to our readers. Capt. Thomas F. Eckert promptly entered bail for Capt. Donaldson, guaranteeing his appearance at St. Louis when required, and he was set at liberty.

PALACE CARS.—Messrs. Hollingshead & Co., of Wilmington, Delaware, are building four elegant Palace Sleeping Cars for the Central Transportation Company to be run between New York and Cincinnati. They are to be finished in Walnut and Maple, and the appointments throughout will be of the most sumptuous description.

TAKEN OVER.—James Allen and John Boyle, sentenced to the Penitentiary—the first for two years for highway robbery, and the second five years for felonious assault and battery—have been removed to that institution.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—George McKnight, a blacksmith living in Lower St. Clair township, who was so severely kicked in the abdomen by a horse on Monday evening that his life was despaired of, is now recovering.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS CONVENTION.—A Convention of the School Directors of Pittsburgh will be held on the 3d of May, in "Grant School House," to elect a City Superintendent of Public Schools.

THE EWALT STREET BRIDGE.—The company advertise for proposals for the erection of the bridge over the Allegheny river at Ewalt street, which is to be known as the Ewalt street Bridge. The bids will close on the 3d inst.

LAND FOR SALE.—We call the attention of all who wish to purchase rich timber, mineral or farming lands on the line of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad to the card elsewhere offering five thousand acres for sale.

MONONGAHELA VALLEY RAILROAD.

To the Citizens of South Pittsburgh, Birmingham, East Birmingham and Ormsby Boroughs.

[For the Commercial.]

I see that an application has been made to the respective Councils by the President of the proposed Monongahela Valley Railroad for a right of way, indicating the upper, which is the southern line of streets, as the preferred course. Let us consider this matter.

It is admitted that a railway passing through these boroughs will be an advantage, and therefore to be favored.

It is plain that the interest of the boroughs would consist in the line of route being that of the least damage.

It is also plain that the interest of the boroughs would consist in having the line of route so as to effect the greatest good.

The proposed route along the Manor street line would injuriously affect the value of property; would not supply coal direct to the manufactories, and would interfere with the egress and ingress into the country south in such a manner as those know the danger and inconvenience of who had to visit the soldiers' hospital, in the Ninth ward, during the late war.

The greatest good to the boroughs would consist in having the line of road on the river bank, whence the various manufactories could obtain their supplies, a river trade be encouraged, and no interference with the present streets.

Let not the boroughs (like a foolish maiden) yield to the solicitations of the first applicant, else they may find that they have been paying too dear for their whistle. A prudent merchant being applied to by a purchaser to buy goods, of which the merchant is the owner, but of the value of which he is unaware, is careful to inform himself of the market value and to inquire if there are other purchasers. So, in this matter, are there other railway companies desirous of a passage through these boroughs, who are as responsible, and will offer as well constructed and carefully conducted a road, with greater accommodations and on better terms?

The boroughs stand in the position of buyers in the matter of obtaining railway accommodation. Let them find out the best offerers before parting with this valuable privilege of right of way. CAVEAT EMPTOR.

PITTSBURGH, April 5, 1869.

MORTGAGES.

Same day thirteen mortgages were filed of record.

Row at a Mill.

William Tatnall, manager, and C. L. Kline, foreman of Shoenberger's nail factory, in the old Fifth ward, made information before Alderman Taylor charging J. A. Musgrave, Thos. McCarthy and Frederick Stewart with surety of the peace. The first information charges that the defendants came to the mill of Shoenberger & Co., on Monday evening, and made threats of violence towards the employees in the mill and also the manager of the works. The second information charges Musgrave and McCarthy with having annoyed Mr. Kline while in the pursuit of his business by menaces and threats of personal violence. They also threatened, it seems, to damage the property of Messrs. S. & Co., and deponent was afraid they might execute their threats. The whole difficulty grew out of the fact that the defendants, who were feeders at the mill mentioned, were discharged last week, and others being placed in their stead, caused them to go to and from the mill watching for the new workmen in order to interfere with them, it is supposed. McCarthy was arrested and released on bail for his appearance, and warrants have been issued for the arrest of the other parties.

Explosions.

About half-past twelve o'clock Tuesday afternoon a boiling furnace in Painters' Mills, Krausburg, on the south side of the Monongahela river, exploded. The roof was blown off the furnace and a man named Weaver was quite severely injured about the eyes. It appears that Weaver was working in front of the furnace and was throwing water in, in order to chill the iron, and a cinder got into the dish, which is supposed to have caused the explosion. The bricks flew in every direction, but fortunately no one was seriously injured.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning a still bursted in Williams' oil refinery, at the foot of Forty-eighth street, near the Allegheny Valley Railroad. The explosion caused a loud report, but aside from the damage to the still no injury was done. An alarm was sounded from box 75, corner of Forty-ninth and Butler streets.

A Handsome Station.

A handsome and substantially built station house has been erected on the line of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, between Beaver Falls and Wallace's run, by persons residing and owning property in that neighborhood. The station has been christened "Cass" station, as a compliment to the President of the Company. The house has been built at private expense, and is one of the best stations on the road. The trains do not stop at the new station, but when the new schedule is arranged deserved notice should be taken of this enterprise by affording those living in the immediate vicinity ample accommodations in the way of trains.

WANDERINGS THROUGH HOLY LAND.—A grand tour through Egypt and the Holy Land for twenty-five cents, at the Universalist Church, corner of Third and Grant streets, on Friday evening, the 9th inst. These views were executed by the distinguished American artist, Mr. George Wunderlich, of Philadelphia. The various scenes are faithfully represented on a large scale from photographs taken on the spot. Do not forget the time and place.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS hold a meeting this evening.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

La Belle Steel Works Partially Destroyed.

Tuesday night, between ten and eleven o'clock, the La Belle Steel Works of Messrs. Reiter & Co., located on the river bank, in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, caught fire near the boilers and was partially destroyed before the firemen could get their apparatus into play. The building was of brick, one story high, with a sheet iron roof, coated with tar and gravel. The principal damage was done to the rolling mill, the heavy timbers of the roof having fallen in upon the machinery. The damage to the spring shop, axle shop, converting and cast steel houses was comparatively slight. The loss cannot be correctly estimated at present, but it is believed that it will not exceed the amount of the insurance—$36,000. The sum of $24,000 was held in five companies, represented by Messrs. Loomis and Collingwood, and the remaining $12,000 is equally divided between the Peoples and the Pittsburgh companies. The works are among the largest in the city, and give employment to one hundred and twenty-five hands. The work of rebuilding was commenced yesterday, and no delay will occur in filling the orders of the firm. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Seven Years Imprisonment.

It will be recollected that during last winter a man named Robert McLaughlin was arrested on suspicion of having robbed a harness shop in the borough of Birmingham. He was afterwards released, however, on promising to assist the officers in arresting the remaining thieves and recovering the goods. Instead of doing this he left the city, and the latest intelligence of Robert places him in an unenviable situation. He was arrested at the Fenian Convention in Cincinnati not long since, and on being searched four pocket books were found in his possession. He was committed to jail on a charge of pocket picking, and after trial in due time sent to the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus for the period of seven years.

THE STABBING AFFRAY AT NOBLESTOWN.—Justice James McConnell, of Noblestown, Pa., appeared before Mayor Brush yesterday and lodged an information for felonious assault and battery against Peter Riley, arrested on Tuesday for stabbing Stephen Bulger in a saloon at Noblestown, on Monday night. A report was circulated yesterday that Bulger was dead, but he was living at last accounts, although he was in a precarious condition. Riley has been committed to jail for a hearing on next Wednesday, by which time it is expected the result of Bulger's injuries will be known.

FRESCO PAINTING.—We direct attention to the card of Mr. John Stulen, Jr., 105 Leacock street, Allegheny, who has established himself here as a fresco painter. Mr. Stulen came to the city some time ago from the East for the purpose of doing a special job, which was executed in such an artistic manner as led a number of citizens to prevail upon him to make his residence here. He is a most accomplished fresco painter, and is prepared to do any work in his line in churches, public halls or parlors, or inside house painting that is desired to be done in a masterly manner, a note directed as above will find him.

REMOVAL.—Schomaker & Langenheim, flour and produce dealers, lately located at the corner of Penn and Canal streets, have changed to Nos. 52 and 54 Seventh avenue, near Grant street, to the commodious store lately occupied by McClure & McKee, and previously by Mr. Gardener.

NEW HOSE CARRIAGE.—The Independence Engine Company of the Twelfth ward, have contracted with the Amoskeag Company of Manchester, N. H., for a new hose carriage to be delivered during the second week of May. The carriage will weigh eleven hundred pounds and will cost six hundred dollars.

THE HANNA LITERARY SOCIETY.—An exhibition by the Hanna Literary Society will be given this evening, at the lecture room of the Second U. P. Church, for the benefit of the Society's library. An excellent programme has been arranged for the occasion.

LOSS OF PETROLEUM.—A bulk boat of petroleum owned by Fisher Bros., was sunk at Freeport on Friday evening. The loss is estimated at $4,900.

SLIGHT FIRE.—A slight fire occurred about five o'clock yesterday morning in the boiler shop of the outer depot of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—This evening the doorkeepers, ushers and officers of the Opera House will have a benefit, and as they are very deserving men their friends will doubtless respond in large numbers. The play will be "Uncle Tom's Cabin," with an excellent cast.

Miss Dargon's benefit will take place to-morrow evening.

PITTSBURGH THEATER.—This evening Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Blanchard will take a benefit, when "Jack Sheppard and his Dog" will be the play. Annie Hindle, Bonzanti, the Lopez family, and the great combination will also appear.

AMERICAN THEATER.—The Arabs continue to perform their daring and graceful feats at the American to crowded audiences. The entertainment here is of a very attractive and varied character, and cannot fail to please.

Police Intelligence.

[Before Alderman Neille.]

SELLING LIQUOR.

John A. Peoples was committed to jail for selling liquor without a license, on oath of officer Johnston Poland.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

LARCENY BY BAILEE.

Lewis Vandergriff was arrested and held for a hearing on a charge of larceny by bailee, preferred by Nancy Lynch, who alleges that the defendant has in his possession a stove and some window blinds, valued in all at twenty-five dollars, which he refuses to give up.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Chas. Frazier, charged on oath of Wm. Grab, with assault and battery.

Woman and Her Needs.

Subject by the law of nature to many physical afflictions from which man is exempt, woman is peculiarly entitled to the best efforts of medical science in her behalf. For a majority of the ailments to which her sex is exclusively liable, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are warmly recommended on the authority of wives, mothers and nurses, who have tested their genial tonic and regulating properties, and "know whereof they speak;" and also with the sanction of able physicians who have administered the preparation to their female patients in obstinate cases of functional derangement with the happiest results. Almost all female complaints of a special character are complicated with mental gloom and despondency, and the gentle and lasting exhilarating effects of this wholesome medicated stimulant adapts admirably for cases of this complex nature. As a remedy for the hysteria and mental hallucinations which sometimes mark both the earlier and the later crisis in the life of woman, it has no equal in the repertory of the healing art, and as a means of relieving the nausea and other unpleasant feelings which precede maternity, it is equally efficacious. Nursing mothers also find it an admirable invigorant. It is highly satisfactory that a preparation which embraces in its remedial range so many of the complaints common to both sexes, should prove so eminently beneficial to the weaker one.

Carriages, and Where to Get them.

The attention of parties interested in the purchase of fine and elegant Carriages, Barouches, Buggies, &c., is directed to the Union Carriage Manufactory of Messrs. Stoner & Mariatt, Nos. 167, 169 and 171 Penn street. This factory is one of the most complete in the State, and the work turned out by it cannot be excelled either in style, finish or durability by any factory either East or West. The materials used being the very finest, and employing, as they do in every department, none but the most skillful workmen, we feel no hesitation in saying that their work will recommend itself, and on trial prove satisfactory. In addition to the superior quality of the work of this firm, their prices are much lower than is asked for vehicles of the same class manufactured in the East. Repairing of all kinds promptly and carefully attended to.
